Received your nice letter and will try again. Thanks for letting me know about Vivians birthdate. I mean the year they were born. I can say I was born in Martin, Ohio My Brother Albert and Alva was born in Trustin, Mich. and Juletta & John were born in Ottawa County but we always lived in the Country as my father used to work in the woods a lot. we did not move to Toledo till some years later. When I was young it seems children didn't pay any attention to what was going on, unless it was something that impressed them extraordinarily? not rite = I am not positive about my Mother & fathers birthplace but

I feel That They both were born around Ottawa County. My father died April 20th 1889 - burried in Limestone Cemetary Ottawa Co. My mother born June 15th 1859 died April 5th 1923 - burried in Forest Cemetary Toledo, Ohio my mothers maiden name was - Augusta Lucretia Root. you ask what relation Jay Baker and Stella Zook is to your Dad They are his second Cousins. Jay Baker had one real brother but ~~th~~ only Knew of one half brother and there Could of been more but I didnt Know of them. Aunt Ida Preston had two sons and two daughters Aunt Nancy had two sons & two daughters - but I dont Know how many Children the females had. - Dear ~~Helen~~ Helen here is part of a letter I started and maybe this is part of what you ask about, I am too sleepy to write it all over - Aunt Ida are still living and both are ministers but I dont know their address - I will send you this letter and if you can get any thing out of it I will be so glad but honey please send it back to me as I have kept it fifty years - it is a shame

I had to mislay one that we need so much after only having it about Three years - Well Honey I dont Know what else to say right now only to ask you to please excuse such poor writing and mistakes I am anxious to keep This letter. her name was Sarah but they called her Sadie so please Honey - Well bye for this time. As always with Love - Aunt Ida -

Dear Helen and all.
Well Helen I told you I was looking for a letter that Aunt Susan Dilley had wrote me and sent me the dates of marriages and deaths of the Dilley family and I found it at last so I will send it to you and when you get all particulars you can send the orriginal? back to me as I would like to keep it. I dont think you was able to do too much any way for a few months with your new baby but I hope by this time every one is fine and that new baby is O. K. too. I dont remember if you said you lived near your parents or not. Well I was just in Toledo to see Aunt Rachel as she is still quite bad and helpless but I dont think you know her - she is Uncle Berts wife and she had a stroke a few months ago. she is at home now. I mean she is out of the hospital living with her daughter Edna on Victory. ~~ia~~ well I guess this is all I can think of for this time hope this finds every body well. Hoping to hear from you soon or when you have the time I will say bye for now.

Dear Helen & All-
I received your letter asking about Mr. & Mrs. Hunt but there is very little I can tell you as I did not know them very well.
I knew who they were when I met them and that is all but I knew the childrens names which I think your Aunt Vivian has told you but maybe she did not remember that Ray Hunt was a professional skater. but I am not sure if he was an ice skater or roller skater. Those years we did not pay attention to things the way they do now. I only wish we had, as some of my Mothers family are writing a Family History about them. How are you getting along with the Dilley history. I would like to help in that too more than I have - I found out my father was born August ~~1st~~ about 9th 1850 and died April 20th 1889 - Maybe I told you that. I only wish I could tell you more of your Dads family. They had Tom - Jack - Mae - Frank and Roy. and as far as I know Jack and Mae never Married - Well how is that New boy of yours and the other ones too.

I do hope every one is well we are all pretty good here. well there is not much news around here so I will get this in the mail and I hope you can find what you would like to know. I was just thinking Port Clinton is the County seat and maybe if you went there they might be able to help you. They are supposed to have those different parts of history on their books.
Will you let me know if you get any news from there. Love and God Bless you

I had seen my grandfather but my grandmother had died before we were old enough to Know any Thing about them - it may please excuse mistakes.

be if you can talk to Stella Zook and Jay Baker - They may remember something as Aunt Nancy died there in Toledo she was Stellas Mother so Stella may have the date she died and Maybe some of the others too.

I can remember every one of them but when I was married I lost track of all of them except Stella Zook - her Sister Rilla Van Meter - Jay Baker - and Alcinda Francis + she was Uncle Seldons daughter - but in these late years I met Uncle Orpha & Aunt Susie and some of their family - Lelande Dilley lives here in Wayne Mich and I am waiting to hear from them. I think he is Uncle Orphas Son. They go to Florida every year but they should be back by this Time Helen I dont want to spoil your lovely writing as you can write this in where you want it but maybe you better wait awhile and I will try to get more information. and as soon as I get it I will let you know. my Dear Helen -

I wanted to write right back to you as soon as I got your letter but I wrote to one of my Cousins in Lansing, Mich. for more information so I waited till I heard from her. so I could tell you what she could tell me. I sure was so surprised that you found out some of my Mothers - family but I sure am glad you did it is possible that my great grand father died in Ohio too. I dont have any pictures of Morgan - Root - or Aurora or John or Samuel - but I do have Malissa Victoria and this other you have Clarissa I think she was called Eolista but I am not sure but she went by

That name when we knew her she used to come to our house a lot and crochet. our family used to go to Locust point a lot and I worked for an undertaker in Port Clinton. when I was a girl. This gives me a lot of old memories I think all of these that I knew were buried in Locust Point. I write to Victorias grand daughter there in Toledo all the time, but she does not seem to remember much about the rest of the family. Esther E. Stolz was my grand-mother Root. Augusta Lucretia was my mother, and it seems that my mother had seven Brothers and some half bros one of my Cousins in Grand Rapids had quite a lot of the Root history but she died a couple yrs. ago, and our uncles are all gone. I wish you could come over. I would show you what pictures I have of the Root family. I also have a ~~tintype~~ picture of my grandpa Dilley - my father and one of his brothers Tho. P. D. My mother was the youngest of their family. Well I was just reading the rest of your letter and you ask about my brother John. he was the only one that married and turned Catholic. his son and also youngest daughter turned but the oldest daughter did not turn.

Helen I do not know much about the Churches the family belonged but my Grandpa Root was a minister but I do not know as my mother was a united Brethern when she was yaung so maybe he was too. Helen I remember the name of James Arnold but I dont seem to recall the name of Sarah McKeever and I think too that you might find something in Sandusky I used to visit there often I used to live at Rocky Ridge and my father is buried at lime Stone so is my brother Alva, my mother's sister is in Forest cemetary there in Toledo I have the names of all my

Mathers brothers. I mean her real brothers but my hand is getting tired so I will close for now but if you need those names I will send them later. You have Oliver with my mother
but I never heard of him.
he might be an older one Will Honey good night and

My Dear Helen —
I received your letter and I think of you so often but I can't think of any thing to help you and the older ones that could of told us are all gone — we only have cousins and the one of them is not able to remember as I was at a family reunion last Saturday and last 9 of the older ones & the rest was their children — grand children & great grand — so you see how it is and I did not really have a chance to find out any thing anyway as we were only there a couple hours — and in such a crowd it is awful hard to talk except about the families & how they were but I do love to hear from you. I never hear from your Mother & Dad except at Xmas or on my birthday but I think of them. and get awful lonesome to see everybody - I only have the one brother left there in Toledo and cant even get to see him, but two of Uncle Johns daughters came to see us today and we sure were surprised to see them it makes me so happy to see our loved ones as I am 91 and I dont suppose I have much more time to see you all. well hope you all keep well and happy - please keep writing I love your say hello for me to your mother and Dad -

God Bless you - aunt Ida all

Dear, Dear Helen — May 18th 1970

I am so sorry we could not be home when you called yesterday but this was a shower on my great grandson's the guests were all invited and the food was cooked and the kitchen doors were open so you see it was a case we could not postpone, but that is why we hope you can let us know a few days ahead of time so we can be home as we have to plan ahead so I hope you will not feel hurt. We do want you to come, Blanche and I were just talking and we want to know if it would be possible for you to come on Saturday or if you could only come on Sunday if you would be able to come early or do you go to church Sunday morn.

Blanche and I go to Church and get home at twelve-thirty but if you could come early I sure would be here to meet you, as I have seen in something where it was written where My grand Mother was buried and when she died so I will try to find it again
I know when my own mother died. it was april 5th 1922.
Well honey I am trying to find out when it would be the best time to come over so we could have time to look into this history and have time to have something to eat. and when we could do our best.

Blanche thinks she answered your last letter, but she wrote so many letters as we don't know where we are but I have started and am trying to write again = if only a little at a time, but my eye is ever so much better, and I don't think I am going to have an operation but I can only Thank God for this blessing and all my blessings & I have been praying for a long time for God to help all of us with all our troubles and He heard my prayers -

Friday Oct 2nd.

so I am doing pretty good.
I dont have such terrible head aches any more but I do get a slight ache over my left eye some times. but the rest of the family is well. our only great granddaughter was married Sept. 23rd she had a lovely wedding + Well this feels like fall weather.
Blanche + George are bowling again on Monday - the Aleo bowls on Wed. + Friday. Blanche goes to Club first + third Tues other club every Wednesday
I have not been to the Club since early in July, but I think I will go Oct 7th
as they will have a birthday

table for every one who's birthday is in Oct. and Blanche's birthday is Oct. 31.

Well Helen ma asked me to finish this letter. She went to the bowling alley to watch us bowl monday & I guess it was to much for her as she had a awful dizzy spell & was sick to her stomach. she has been staying in bed quite a bit since then as it is darker in there. We did not get to go to the birthday table at club as she wasent able to go & I wouldent go either, her eye is bothering her quite a bit today. I just canned 7 pts of fruit chilli sauce.

Well I'll close for now. write soon. Love to all.

one of the pictures that was in the Wyandotte Paper. Ma being the oldest women & the oldest man taken with the mayor, this was at our annual Xmas party at the Senior Citizens club.

Wed - March - 3 - 71

Dear Helen,

Received your welcome letter and am glad we can hear from you as you are the only one we can get an answer from, & once in a while from Mae W. I wrote Vivian again a couple of weeks ago & still no answer. Well I have been like Steven I had a very bad cold for about three weeks but I think it is just about gone now. Thats the first one I have had for a long, long, time but it was a bad one.

We had a beautiful day yesterday but winter again today.

Ma & George are pretty good to. They must be doing to Toledo what they are doing to Wyandotte and Detroit, they have changed things around so that you don't know where your at any more.

Glad your mother & dad are O. K.

Well Helen there isent much news here either, but at lest a little note lets us know how each other is, say hello to your folks for us.

Love & God bless you all.

Aunt Ida & Blanche

April-30-71

Dear Helen,

Received your letter so thought I would try to write a few lines & thank you for getting in touch with Joyce & finding out about Vivian, so she wrote us a letter, she said she thought she had answered our last letter, but she has been so busy taking care of Jim & family while they were house hunting, & she isn't to well herself and has trouble with her back. We sent her a birthday card & letter, they passed each other in the mail, our letters I mean.

I am sorry that you couldnt get your chair fixed.

We have quite a few garages sales around here to. I would like to have one & get rid of a lot of stuff that we have been collecting for years, but just about the time you get rid of something then you find you could use it.

I got a new book case made my sons brotherinlaw made it for me, it cost me $20.00 just for the wood & making but he only charged me $10.00 for his work, I had bought one at Montgumery Wards for 32.00, when I told my son he said he could get me one quite a lot cheaper but he didint relize how expensive wood is, but he did save me $12.00 as I canseled the other one.

Will you have a lot of work being secretary for the Genealogy society? I hope you have good luck.

Sorry to hear about Jim having that asthma attack, but glad he is all right now.

I know what you mean about trying to teach some one else something. I was giving a lady china painting lessons for a while and it is quite hard.

I havent ~~done~~ got any of my spring cleaning done yet. I need to get these windows done but I have to waite on my husband to take them out for me & to hold the ladder outside as there isent to much to hold on to. Well I think I will say good nite for now as it is ten oclock & we usually have a little bible reading & daily lessons. & prayers befor we go to bed.

Love & God bless you all.

Aunt Ida & Blanche

P.S. Ma isent very well she is losing control of her left side & it is hard for her to walk I have to watch so she dont fall. but dont say any thing about it when you write as I read all letters to her.

April 12th 71.

Dear Helen, Received your ever welcome letter so will try to write a few lines.

We had a beautiful day today & yesterday was quite nice too but not as warm as today, our temp. was 81.

Did you have a nice Easter? We went to church, came home had dinner & just lounged around but we do the same thing every Sunday.

Ma & I went for a walk this afternoon, up to the corner & back.

Did you get your chair upholstered yet? when you get yours done you come over & do mine.

Ma said she never heard of John Root or his wife so she cant help you there.

Helen could you possibly get in touch with Vivian for us & find out how she is please. & how her throut is & how all the folks are.

Well I hope your Dad & mother do come over to see us, & you folks to.

Well I think I will close for tonite.

Love & God bless you all.

Aunt Ida & Blanche

Dear Helen,

Well I finally have got around to answer your letter + questions. It seems that we are always doing something or going some where that takes up our time. But maybe this is to late to help Barbara with her Project. I am so sorry we didnt get around to it sooner. Ma says she dont know anything about Aurora, she knows the names but nothing else about them except she was her grandfather's daughter.

Did you ever hear from Betty Edna's sister that had the bible.

We had a couple of beautiful days with a little shower now + then but supposed to get rain again tomorrow.

Well we are great grandma + great, great grandma, my grand daughter had a beautiful baby girl, 6 lb 12 oz.

They named her Kelly René, she is our first one so of course you know that she is just it. She really is a little doll she is 6 weeks old tomorrow & now weighs 10#. Carol breast feeds her. She is a very good baby except when she gets hungry she really turns it up.

Well my husband will be coming home, he said in his letter today he should be home by the 2nd of June, he had charge of prayer servis Wednesday nite, but he has been having others to help him so it dont all fall on one. They have people coming from all over to sight see & they take them on tours as Nauvoo is the Historic place where our church began. He says it is beautiful country & wanted ma & I to go down there while he was there but we just couldnt make it. Maybe some day when he can drive us down we can go.

We went to Golden Age Club today, + over to our friends apt. yesterday for lunch & cards, Wed. to S. C. Club for cards. There are five of us, we've been to the other two's homes so next time it will be my turn.

Well I want to write to John yet tonite so I can mail it tomorrow a. m. so will say good nite for now.

Love & Blessings,
Aunt Ida & Blanche.

Dear Helen & all -
It has been a long time since we heard from you but we have not forgotten you - we keep saying we should write to Helen, but the time goes by and we dont write - We owe so many letters and it seems we cant get time to get at it. ever since Blanche got married again we have just been in a whirl. her husband started repairing our home about a year and a half ago but he says there was so much wrong that he had to tear it all apart and it is not quite done yet but Maybe we will get there soon Blanche has been helping him as they have both been freely busy as she used to write the most of our letters but now with this work and our clubs we have to keep going but our place will be almost like a new home with every thing fixed over - but we think of you so often and wonder how you all are - also the rest of the family well Blanche & John have gone shopping so I thought I would write the few lines - please let us hear from you - God Bless you & keep you with Love Aunt Ida & Blanche -

Toledo, Ohio 43623

Dear Mrs. Read,

In searching our records of deeds, we failed to find any transfer to a William Dilley or to any of the children which you named, however, we did find a deed from John F. Koons and his wife to a L. S. Dilley, This deed was dated April 22, 1873 and is recorded in Volume S on page 141 of the Otta Co. Deed records. L. S. Dilley then sold this parcel of land to a Frank Churchill on February 14, 1874. This deed is recorded in Vo. T, page 540. This property is described as being in the Village of Martin in the John F. Koons Addition in Clay Township, Section 14, Township 7, North Range 13. The deed states that L. S. Dilley of Martin is the grantor, however, he signed the deed as Smith Dilley Smith could have possibly been his middle name.

I hope that this has been of some help to you. If we can be of help to you in the future please let us know.

Sincerely,

Jean L. Williams

Dear Sir;

I have been searching my family history and can find no record of my great-great-grandfather after the 1880 Census. He lived in Martin Twp., Ottawa Co., at that time.

There are no Probate Records of any type for him.

Would it be possible for you to search the indexes of deeds from 1880 on for 10 or 20 years to see if his or his descendants name appears?

What I am hoping for is, if he died in another county' that the name of it might appear on a grantors deed. Or possibly I can get an idea of when he died.

The information I have is as follows:

William Lloyd Dilley
ba.ca 1825
widower in 1880
children: Nancy, Levi, Ida, Sarah, Jaspar, Seldon, Cornelius, Wilbur and Milton

Please inform me of any fee I might incur.

Any help at all will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Mrs. David J. Read

Dear Helen,

Well I have been writing letters today trying to get caught up.

We have not started the new year out very good. Ma has a very sore leg, coming home from my granddaughters Xmas nite we both slipped but didn't fall, but some how she cut her leg & it is very sore, there must of been some ice on the snow but we just dont know how it happened. The doctor says she should stay off of it.

John has had an infection in his ear for a couple of weeks.

I hope your mouth is better by now.

How is Gary coming with his driving.

Yes there are a lot of Pepards up around this area. I wish I could find out what my fathers fathers first name was. ma does not remember ever hearing my dad saying anything about him, but he was killed befor my dad was born. The boys names were, Gill, Bill, Cryell?, Richard & my dad Phillip. If you ever run accross any of those names his might be one of them. It would have to go back befor 1876, Thats when my dad was born. That top name may be spelled Cerell.

We have had a lot of snow befor Xmas but it is supposed to melt away by tomorrow.

Well I think I'll have to say good nite for this time as I have to make a couple of Phone calls beforit gets to late. Love

Aunt Ida & Blanche.

COUNTY, NEW YORK, AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

COMPILED BY CAROLINE (WATKINNS) CRIPPEN (MRS. GEORGE B. CRIPPEN), Worcester, Otsego County, New York.

1. SILAS[1] CRIPPEN was born July 29, 1759, in ——? and died March 7, 1831, in Worcester, Otsego Co., N. Y. His parentage as given in the American Ancestry, Vol. I, p. 19, would indicate that he belonged to one of the branches of the Crippen family that removed from Connecticut to New York before the Revolutionary War,—as this quoted authority states that this Silas[1] Crippen was born in Kinderhook, Columbia Co., N. Y., and that he married Elizabeth Waterman and that his original Crippen ancestor came from Wales. The other statements regarding Silas[1] Crippen set forth in the above quoted authority are not in accordance with the facts of the case and moreover there is no evidence to be found in the Kinderhook records to show that Silas[1] Crippen was born there or that he ever there resided. Notes furnished to a descendant of Silas[1] Crippen a few years ago set forth that the Silas Crippen who married Elizabeth Waterman was a son of John and Mary (Robinson) Crippen of Amenia, Dutchess Co., N. Y. No authority for this pronouncement was quoted; and as the manuscript of the informant who made the statement was subsequently burned, it is impossible to say upon what authority such statement was made. *

It is therefore seen that the parentage of our Silas[1] Crippen is as yet not determined.

We do, however, know that Silas[1] Crippen, of Worcester, N. Y., was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, as is his widow received a pension on account of his service therein. Her application for a pension was signed by two of her sons, Daniel[2] and Schuyler[2] Crippen, and was dated Oct. 29, 1838, and the application stated that her husband, Silas[1] Crippen enlisted as a private in the spring of 1776, in Col. Elmore's regiment (whose Connecticut company of that regiment was recruited in that section where the States of Massachusetts, Connecticut and New York join). This enlistment was for service until Jan. 1, 1777, part of which time was spent by Silas[1] Crippen at Fort Stanwix (Fort Schuyler), now Rome, N. Y.

* Born, Married and Died, in Sharon, Conn., p. 30, states:—"Creppen, John, and Mary Richmond, m. Aug. 10, 1741;—Crippen, John, s. of John and Mary, b. July 23, 1743;—Crippen, Ezra, s. of John and Mary, b. Feb. 100, 1745-6;—Cripin, Mary, d. of John and Mary, b. Aug. 4, 174-?"

From the above extract, which is all contained in this volume relative to John and Mary (Richmond) Crippen and their issue,—it appears that John Crippen married Mary Richmond and by her had the above named three children, the last mentioned born sometime in the late 1740's. The names of John and Mary (Richmond) Crippen disappear from Sharon (in so far as this authority is concerned) subsequent to the late 1740's and there is no mention of there ever having been a son Silas born to them in Sharon, Conn. Subsequent to the late 1740's it would seem that John and Mary (Richmond) Crippen removed from Sharon, Conn., but to what locality they proceeded is not made clear. The Silas[1] Crippen, the ancestor of this branch of the Crippen family under discussion was (according to the compiler's statement) born July 29, 1759, within 12 days of 18 years after the marriage of John Crippen to Mary Richmond in Sharon, Conn. The birth of a child to the same parents 18 years after their marriage while by no means naturally impossible, yet is sufficiently unusual to cast a reasonable amount of doubt (in the absence of positive proof) upon the statement that John and Mary (Richmond) Crippen were the parents of Silas[1] Crippen, whose genealogical record and those of his descendants it is the purpose of this article to set forth. JOHN R. TOTTEN, Editor.

THE CHENERY ANCESTRY OF JOHN MOODY AND OF FRANCES (MOODY) KILBOURN OF HARTFORD AND WETHERSFIELD, CONN.

By Frederick J. Nicholson

While a number of articles have been published on the Moody family from which the New England families of Moody and Kilbourn descend, little has been said about the identity of the mother of John and Frances Moody. This article will demonstrate that she was, in fact, Margaret Chenery of the family of that name which was based in Kennett, Cambridgeshire, England.

The identity of George Moody, the father of John and Frances Moody, has been well established. He was baptized at Moulton, Suffolk, 28 Sept. 1560, the son of Richard and Ann Moody of Moulton. While the baptisms of all his children are found in the Moulton register, the only reference made to his (first) wife, and thus the only indication we have of her name, is the record of her burial at Moulton, 25 Jan. 1602/3, in which she is identified as Margaret, wife of George Mody (Lilian J. Redstone, "Moody," NEHGR 80[1926]:313-327, reprinted in English Origins of New England Families, First Series, 2:144-158; Donald Lines Jacobus, Hale, House and Related Families [Hartford 1952] pp. 652-56).

Redstone, in her Register article, identifies the wife of George Moody only as Margaret ——. A footnote to this article, however, suggests the possibility that the marriage of a George Moody to Margery Bacon which took place in Sudbury in 1601 could account for the Margaret Moody, wife of George, who was buried in 1603. If this were the case, of course, we would be left without even a first name for the mother of those Moody children born before 1601. Nathan Grier Parke in his Ackley-Bosworth Genealogy identifies the first wife of George Moody as Margaret Newce, although he cites no authority for this. But this would appear to be based on the note in TAG by John Insley Coddington (29[1953]:209), which reports this same information as being found in the Banks MSS at the Library of Congress; Banks, in turn, seems to be drawing on a pedigree at the College of Arms.

There is, however, no need to go so far afield as Sudbury in looking for the first wife of George Moody of Moulton. The marriage of George Moody and Margaret Chenery is recorded on 12 Oct. 1581, in Kennett, Cambridgeshire, a parish immediately adjoining Moulton. Elizabeth, the first child recorded for George Moody in Moulton, was baptized there on 2 Oct. 1582. The close fit of these dates makes it likely that the first wife of George Moody was, in fact, Margaret Chenery of Kennett, Cambridgeshire. Even if the man who married Margery Bacon was George Moody of Moulton, (and there is no particular reason to believe he was), the date of the marriage means she could only have been the mother of his last child – Margaret Chenery would still have been the mother of the first eight (including both John and Frances of New England).

Following up this discovery was not so easy as one might have hoped. The marriage records for the parish of Kennett, beginning in 1558, were copied before the last war and are on deposit at the Society of Genealogists in London. The baptisms and burials were not so copied. The Cambridge Record Office reports that, due to a fire in the 1940s, the only parish records presently surviving for Kennett are the marriages beginning in 1754, and the baptisms and burials beginning in 1813. Archdeacon's and bishop's transcripts do, however, exist for some early years, and it is from these that the Kennett baptisms and burials mentioned in the ensuing discussion were obtained.

Searching the wills of the Chenery family (often Chinery, sometimes indexed as Chivery) revealed what appears to have been a single branch of this family living in the Kennett area. (Abstracts of wills and citations are provided below.) John Chenery of Kennett left a will proved in October of 1550, and his widow Emma Chenery of Moulton, Suffolk, also left a will, which was proved in June of 1560. Both died too early to be likely to mention the Margaret Chenery who married in 1581. There were, however, three Chenery sons mentioned in both wills – John, William and Richard. Fortunately all three also left wills. Unfortunately, all three died before 1581, so that there could be no mention of a connection with George Moody. As it happens, only one of the three mentioned a daughter Margaret – this was John Chenery 2nd (as I shall refer to him).

In his will of 25 Sept. 1575, John 2nd named his wife Elizabeth, one son (John 3rd) and four daughters (Mary, Margaret, Elizabeth and Johanne). Margaret, Elizabeth and Johanne were all under 20 at this time. John was under 21 (he was, in fact, baptized at Kennett in 1568). Mary's age was not indicated, and it seems likely, therefore, that she was about 20. Since Margaret was consistently mentioned second to Mary and previous to the other two daughters, an age of about 15 for her (which assumes she was about the same age as George Moody) is not unreasonable.

The only will recorded in this area for a widow Elizabeth Chenery (in 1628) makes it quite clear that she was the widow of another John Chenery whose will was proved in 1624. He was the son of Richard and Philippa Chenery, and the grandson of John 1st and Emma. Among the marriages of Kennett, however, was that of Elizabeth Chenery and William Hinson recorded in 1576, the year after the death of John 2nd. A search of wills revealed one for a widow Elizabeth Hinson of Fordham, Cambridgeshire, proved in 1626.

An examination of this will showed that Elizabeth Hinson had, indeed, been the wife of John Chenery 2nd. In it, she named her son John Chenery and her daughters Mary Chenery, Elizabeth Payne, Johanne Cheeseright, Grissell Fayerclife and Anne

Hart. The latter two, whose names did not appear in John's will, are shown by the record of their marriages to have been daughters by her second marriage. The others were precisely those mentioned in the will of John Chenery 2nd. (The marriage of Johanne Chenery and John Cheeseright was recorded in Fordham in 1584.) The only omission is Margaret. Of course, both Margaret and George Moody had died by the time this will was written. Fortunately for us, Elizabeth Hinson chose to remember her granddaughter (and namesake) Elizabeth "Prate," thus finally tying the two Margaret Chenerys together, since Elizabeth, the eldest daughter of George and Margaret (Chenery) Moody, married John Pratt of Wood Ditton in 1610. (For further discussion of this John Pratt, see Appendix to this article.)

With three generations of the Chenery family established, earlier records were examined in an attempt to trace the family still further. The existence of a Chenery family in and around Cockfield, Suffolk, was of particular interest, given that John Chenery the first left land in that parish to his heirs. While none of the Cockfield wills made direct reference to the Chenery family of Kennett, an early Chancery record demonstrated that the two branches of the family were, in fact, related (although the exact relationship was not specified), and that the father of John Chenery the first of Kennett was named Thomas Chenery.

The case is somewhat difficult to follow, given that it involves four different men named John Chenery. Fortunately for us, even their contemporaries evidently had trouble distinguishing among them, since at least two of the four were given sobriquets: John "Halting" Chenery and John Chenery "the clerk." To summarize the cast of characters, the suit deals with three Chenery men of the Cockfield family – John Chenery "the clerk"; his son, John "Halting" Chenery (both of whom were dead at the time of the suit); and John Chenery, son of Halting Chenery and his wife Elizabeth. His mother Elizabeth, and his stepfather John May of Pattiswick, Essex, were his co-plaintiffs. The defendants included John Chenery of Kennett (referred to elsewhere in this discussion as John Chenery the first). In his statement, he mentioned his father, Thomas Chenery, and stated that he himself had been a kinsman of John Chenery the clerk (PRO, Chancery Bundle #1143, folios 27-30). The statements reveal that the plaintiffs were John May of Pattiswick, Essex, his wife Elizabeth, who was late the wife of John Chenery (late of Cockfield, Suffolk, deceased, commonly called Halting Chenery) and John Chenery, son and heir of this same John Chenery. The defendants were John Chenery of Kennett, Cambridgeshire, together with the executors of Halting Chenery (i.e., Alen Chenery, clerk, William Cakston and John Androwe). The case was evidently brought to Chancery between 1544 and 1547, the period established by the tenure of the official to whom the suit was addressed.

The suit concerned a piece of land in Cockfield which, according to the plaintiffs, had been left to John "Halting" Chenery by his father John Chenery, "commonly called John Chenery the clerk." The death of John "the clerk" Chenery took place "about 40 years now past," or about 1506. At this time John "Halting" Chenery entered into the lands. In his will, made about "18 years last past," or about 1528, Halting Chenery willed the said lands to John Chenery, his son, he to enter upon the lands at age 21. The executors, who were to look after the lands until that time, in collusion with John Chenery of Kennett, deeded the land to him (John of Kennett) about 2 years before the date of the present suit.

John Chenery of Kennett, in his answer, specified that "long time before John Chenery the clerk had the said lands," Thomas Chenery, father of John Chenery of Kennett, was (with certain other persons) seized of the said lands. The said Thomas Chenery died about 46 years last past (about 1500), at which time the lands should properly have descended to the present defendant, John Chenery of Kennett. He was, at the time, only one year old. For this reason, John Chenery the clerk, "kinsman and nigh ffreende unto" the said John Chenery of Kennett now defendant, took upon himself the care of the lands until the heir reached maturity. However, he died before this could take place, at which time his son, John "Halting" Chenery, entered upon the lands and claimed them as his own.

According to the testimony of John Chenery of Kennett, all this happened when he was so young, that for many years he didn't know that the lands were supposed to have been his. When he learned this (about two years before the present suit), he brought suit and was awarded the lands. They were duly signed over to him by the executors of Halting Chenery, the co-defendants in the present suit.

This Chancery suit provides several valuable pieces of information, including the specification of some key dates. These dates, while inexact, can be specified to within two or three years, thanks to the short term in office of the official involved. For the purposes of this article, I have used 1546 as the approximate date of this Chancery suit, and have estimated the years of various events accordingly. I use this date for two reasons. One is that, as a middle year of the period in question, it ensures that no approximated date will be off by more than two years. Another reason is that in 1528 an epidemic of the sweating sickness broke out in England, causing widespread death and panic. John "Halting" Chenery, said to have died 18 years before the Chancery suit in question, may have been a victim of this plague.

An unfortunate omission in the testimony is the exact relationship between John Chenery the clerk and Thomas Chenery. This might have enabled us to establish the connection between the Chenery family of Cockfield and that of Kennett. It seems likely that with more research they will be found to be descendants, perhaps grandsons, of John and Elena Chenery of Cockfield, whose wills, recorded in the Probate registry of the Archdeaconry of Sudbury, were dated 1460 and 1464 respectively. In them they named, among others, sons John and Alan.

The relationship of Alan Chenery, clerk, one of the supervisors of John "Halting" Chenery, to the other Chenerys is also unstated. He may be the Sir Alan Chenery who was named supervisor of the will of another John Chenery of Cockfield whose will was dated 20 Jan. 1559 and proved 13 Feb. 1559[/60] (Archdeaconry of Sudbury, 391 Sparrow). ("Sir" was commonly used at this time for priests, so that he could well be the same as "Alan Chenery, clerk.") In this will the testator named sons Harry, John and Thomas; daughter Jone Frost; Elizabeth Chenery, daughter of son John; Roger Kelom, son of daughter (unnamed); wife Annes. Yet another John Chenery of Cockfield, called John thelder, had left a will dated 22 April 1549, and proved 21 Feb. 1549[/50] (Archdeaconry of Sudbury, 496 Cole). In it, he named sons Nicholas, William and Robert; daughters Agnes, Elizabeth and Maryon; wife Anne. He also stated that "for the further knowledge of this my last will to be trewe, I have surrendered my copy land into thands of John Chenery of Burton." Whether or not any of these John Cheneries might be identical to the youngest plaintiff in the Chancery suit is impossible to say with any certainty. Perhaps other records may enable us further to clarify these relationships.

The following abstracts of Chenery family wills provide the framework on which the ensuing family summary is based.

1 THOMAS[D] CHENERY was born perhaps between 1470 and 1475 and died ca.1500. In the above-discussed Chancery Court suit, which took place between 1544 and 1547, John[C] Chenery said that his father had died about 46 years before. If we assume the date of the suit to have been about 1546, Thomas would have died about the year 1500. Since his son and heir was then about one year of age, he would probably have been at least 20 years of age himself, but still relatively young – a birth year in the range of 1470 to 1475 would be reasonable. He owned land in Cockfield, Suffolk, but may have been a resident of Kennett, Cambridgeshire, as was his son. It is not clear when the son John acquired his father's Kennett lands.

The fact that John "the clerk" Chenery was described as kinsman to John[C], although evidently at least a generation older, suggests that he may have been a brother of Thomas[D].

Known child (CHENERY) of Thomas[D]:

2 i JOHN[C] b. ca.1499; d. between 1549 and 1550.

2 JOHN[C] CHENERY (Thomas[D]) was born ca.1499 and died at Kennett, Cambridgeshire, between 25 Oct. 1549 and 21 Oct. 1550, the dates when his will was written and proved, respectively. He married, say 1520, EMMA ——, who survived him and died in Moulton, Suffolk, between 12 Nov. 1558 and 8 June 1560, the dates of the writing and proving of her will.

John and Emma (——) Chenery resided in Kennett, Cambridgeshire. Relatively well-to-do landowners, both left wills. He was buried in the Kennett churchyard according to the will of his son John.

Her will calls her "of Moulton," suggesting either that she may have come originally from Moulton and had gone back to live with relatives, or (perhaps more likely) that she was living with one of her children in that parish. One of the witnesses to her will was Thomas Moody, parson of Moulton and brother of Richard Moody of Moulton, from whom the New England family here treated derive. (That he was the brother of Richard Moody is proven by the record of the administration in 1576 of his intestate estate, recorded in PCC administrations. In it, he is referred to as Thomas Moody, "clericus," of Islington, Middlesex, and his principal heir is George Moody, presently a minor in the care of Edward Colt of Moulton, Suffolk. In addition, an early Chancery dispute is on record, File 1453, #39-42, between Thomas Modye parson of Moulton and Richard his brother. Subject: "exclusion from complainant's parsonage which defendant has been permitted to inhabit at will.")

Another connection between the families which predates the marriage of George Moody and Margaret Chenery is the statement in the will of Richard Moody himself, who refers to sheep that he owns which are "now going at Kennett with John Chenery."

Children (CHENERY) of John[C] and Emma (——):

3 i JOHN[B] b. between 1520 and 1535; d. at Kennett in 1575.
4 ii WILLIAM d. at Kennett in 1568.
5 iii RICHARD d. at Kennett between 1563 and 1568.
iv MARION b. perhaps ca.1520; m., prob. by 1537, since she had 5 children at the writing of her father's will in 1549, JOHN HEYWARD. Children as named in the will of John Chenery in 1549: Sym (female), Phillipp, John, Elizabeth and Em (the latter four all under 12 years old). Children as named in the will of Emma Chenery in 1558: Fyne (female), Audrey, Richard, Phillipp and Emma Heyward. Phillipp may be the unmarried female servant Richard[B] Chenery named in his will in 1563. Audrey was named in the will of William[B] Chenery in 1567 as his goddaughter. "Fyne" Heyward (named in Emma Chenery's will) may refer to the same girl as "Sym" Heyward (named in John[C] Chenery's will) – the clerk may have mistranscribed one or the other.
v ELIZABETH m. (THOMAS?) PERKINS, probably in the 1540s. Two daughters of hers, Marion and Emma, both specified as being under 14 years of age, were named in the will of John[C] Chenery, their grandfather, in 1549. Emma (but not Marion) was also named in the will of Emma Chenery in 1558.
vi KATHERINE m. by 1549 to THOMAS GILBERT. Both were still living in 1575 when they were named in the will of her brother John[B] Chenery of Kennett.

3 JOHN[B] CHENERY (John[C], Thomas[D]) was born probably between 1520 and 1535. He married (probably ca.1550-55) ELIZABETH NORWICH, daughter of Stephen and Agnes (——) Norwich of Ashley, Cambridgeshire. He resided in Kennett, and left a will dated 25 Sept. 1575, and proved 2 Nov. 1575.

His widow Elizabeth married, second, 30 July 1576 in Kennett, William Hinson of Fordham, Cambridgeshire, who had been previously married (in Fordham in 1570) to Margaret Dearslie, who was buried at Fordham, 13 Sept. 1573. William was buried at Fordham, 3 June 1592. Elizabeth was buried at Fordham, 28 June 1619, leaving a will ("Elizabeth Hindson, widow, of Fordham") which was dated 8 Aug. 1616, and proved 27 March 1626.

The provisions of John[B] Chenery's will suggest that his daughter Mary was older than her sisters, and that she was about the age of 20 (or older) at the writing of his will in 1575. This would, in turn, suggest a marriage date for John in the early 1550s, and a birth date in the 1520s or 30s. Of course, these dates are conjectural, but in the absence of more specific ones, they help to place the chronology of this family.

It is interesting to note that Mary Chenery, who was left money by her father only under condition that she marry with the consent of her mother, seems to have found this requirement impossible to meet, as she was still unmarried some 40 years later in 1616. This condition, in that it was stated in such a way as to apply only to Mary, implies that she may have been seeing a man of whom her parents disapproved, or at least that her father did not have great confidence in her ability to choose an acceptable husband.

Children (CHENERY) of John[B] and Elizabeth (Norwich):

i MARY[A] b. perhaps ca.1550-1555. Unmarried in 1616 at the writing of her mother's will. She may have been the Mary Chenery who was bur. Fordham, 17 Sept. 1625.

ii MARGARET b. perhaps about 1560 (she was under 20 in 1575); m. in Kennett, 12 Oct. 1581, to GEORGE[A] MOODY, who was baptized in Moulton, Suffolk, 28 Sept. 1560, son of Richard and Ann (——) Moody. She was bur. in Moulton, 25 Jan. 1602/3. George m. (2) Moulton, 19 Sept. 1604, Christian Knapp. This date has erroneously appeared in print as 5 Sept. 1604 (Ackley-Bosworth p. 17). In the original, however, it is clearly 19 Sept. And, although most writers give the bride's name as Christian Cramp, it looks more like Knapp in the register. George was bur. Moulton, 23 Aug. 1607. They were parents of the immigrants John Moody and Frances (Moody) Kilbourn.

iii ELIZABETH b. perhaps about 1562; m. in 1585 by licence, Bury St. Edmonds, WILLIAM PAYNE; named in her mother's will as Elizabeth Payne. Her husband was identified in a Chancery suit dated 14 May 1595. In this suit, Thomas Hinson, son and heir of William Hinson, gentleman, of Fordham, claimed that Elizabeth Hinson, late wife of William Hinson and mother-in-law of the said Thomas Hinson, together with her son-in-law William Payne, had taken possession of a piece of land that should have been his (Thomas') (PRO, Chancery Files C3 241/45).

She may have been the widow Elizabeth Payne of Worlington, Suffolk, whose will was proved in the Sudbury court on 29 May 1630. In it she mentioned her son Henry Payne, her daughter Dister, her daughter Anne Guest and her daughter Mary Biggs, wife of Thomas Biggs. One of the witnesses was Elizabeth Dister, perhaps the daughter named in the will.

iv JOAN b. perhaps about 1564; bur. Fordham, 2 Jan. 1640/1; m. JOHN CHEESERIGHT at Fordham, 12 Nov. 1584, who was bur. there, 24 Oct. 1615. Joan was executrix (after the renunciation of her brother John) of her mother's will in 1626.

The will of John Cheeseright of Fordham, in which he is styled "gentleman," was dated 3 April 1613 and proved 30 Nov. 1615 (Archdeaconry of Sudbury, 326 Stevens). His widow Joan was the executrix, and in it he named sons Mark, John, Edward, Thomas and Richard Cheeseright, grandson Thomas Cheeseright (a minor), daughters Bridgett Cheeseright, Elizabeth Cheeseright, Sarah Cheeseright, Margaret Cheeseright, Joane Cheeseright, Frances Cheeseright (the youngest daughter), Frances Norridge (not the same person), Amy Shillinge and Grissell Bentley. He also mentioned his son-in-law Martin Shillinge, gentleman, whom he named as his supervisor. One of the witnesses was a Robert Bentley, presumably the husband of his daughter Grissell.

This appears to have been a family in which two daughters were given the same name. His youngest daughter Frances was baptized at Fordham, 22 Sept. 1603. His elder daughter Frances was married at Fordham, 17 Dec. 1600, to Mr. John Norredge, parson of Ashley. Since Norredge is a variant spelling of Norwich, this man was probably a close relative of Joan (Chenery) Cheeseright through her mother Elizabeth (Norwich) (Chenery) Hinson, whose family was also from Ashley.

The widow Joan Cheeseright's will was dated 31 May 1633, and proved at Sudbury 4 June 1641 (Archdeaconry of Sudbury, 264 Muriell). In it she named her daughter Joane, her son-in-law Robert Bently and her daughter Grissell his wife, her daughter Elizabeth (wife of Robert Larkin), her daughter Sarah and her son Mark, whom she named as her executor. Her supervisor was her son-in-law Thomas Abbs. It is uncertain whether all the children of John Cheeseright were by Joan.

v JOHN bp. Kennett, 8 Feb. 1567/8; he was living in 1626, when he renounced executorship of his mother's will. He may have been the John Chenery of Fordham whose children (George, Ann, John, Bridget and Tomasin) were baptized there between 1600 and 1610. ELEANOR, the first wife of this John Chenery, was bur. Fordham, 19 May 1604.

Children (HINSON) of William and Elizabeth (Norwich) (Chenery):

vi GRISSELL bp. Kennett, 20 July 1577; m. Fordham, 28 May 1600, to WILLIAM FAIRECLIFFE. Still living at the writing of her mother's will in 1616.

vii ANNE b. perhaps 1579; m. Fordham, 13 Nov. 1605, to WILLIAM HARTE. Still living in 1616.

4 WILLIAM CHENERY (John[C], Thomas[D]) was buried at Kennett, 6 Feb. 1567/8. He was a husbandman of Howndwell, parish Kennett, Cambridgeshire, at the writing of his will, which was dated 1 Jan. 1567/8, and proved 7 April 1568. In it, he named his wife ANNE whom he made his executor, and his three sons George, Richard and Thomas, all of whom were under 18 years of age. He also named his brother John Chenery, whom he made his supervisor, and his brother-in-law Thomas Oldfylde. He mentioned his goddaughter Awdrey Haywarde, his godson Henry Costone (Cotton?) of Multon and his goddaughter Elizabeth Sherocke. Other legatees included John Sherocke, Richard Smythe, Ambrose Prygge and his maid Mary Horne. Witnesses to the will were John Chinerye, John Sherocke and Thomas Oldfylde of Kennet, William Fyson and Elyce Oldfyld of Kentford.

Children (CHENERY) of William and Anne (Oldfylde?):

i GEORGE (eldest son).

ii RICHARD (second son); perhaps the Richard Chenery of Fordham, who was bur. there 20 June 1607. His children Richard, William, John, Elizabeth and Robert were baptized at Fordham between 1592 and 1606. His widow ELIZABETH was bur. there 7 June 1627.

iii THOMAS (third son).

5 RICHARD CHENERY (John[C], Thomas[D]) of Kennett, Cambridgeshire, left a will dated 6 Nov. 1563, and proved 7 April 1568. In it he named his wife PHYLIPE and his son John, who was under 21 years of age. His brother William Chenery was heir to land in Cockfield if John should die. His wife Philipe was named executor. Other heirs included his servant Phylipe Hayward (female, unmarried), servant Richard Cuter (Center?), godson William Oldefyld, goddaughter Mary Chinnery, godson Richard Avery, William Waspe, Elizabeth Dale and Richard Bolabye. Supervisors were his brother John Chenery and Chrystopher Founstone. Witnesses included Sir Olyver Mather, clarke, William Fytzson, John Fytson, John Chinnery, William Chinnery and Chrystopher Founstone.

His widow married, second, at Exning, Suffolk, 20 Aug. 1567, Richard Drury. She was buried at Exning, 23 June 1587, leaving a will, dated 19 June 1587 and proved at Sudbury on 2 Oct. 1587. In it, she named, among others, her son John Chinnery; his eldest son Richard; his daughters Phillipe (eldest daughter), Anne (second daughter), Katherine (third daughter), Elizabeth (other daughter), Frauncis and Margarett (daughters); and the child that her daughter-in-law Annis Chenery was carrying at the time.

Child (CHENERY) of Richard and Philippe (——):

6 i JOHN b. between 1542 and 1554; died 1624.

6 JOHN CHENERY (Richard, John^{C}, Thomas^{D}) was born after 1542 (he was a minor in 1563), and before 1554 (he was given custody of his cousin in 1575). He died in 1624 in Barton, Suffolk. He married first, at Exning, 9 July 1570, to AGNES BRIDGEMAN, daughter of William Bridgeman of Exning, Suffolk. She was buried at Kennett, 4 Feb. 1615/6. He married second, at Bury St. Edmonds, St. James parish, 24 Oct. 1616, widow ELIZABETH BAXTER, who survived him.

Agnes Chenery's identity is established from the will of her father, dated 19 March 1577, and proved 2 May 1578 (PCC Langley). In it, he named his daughter Annys Chennery and he requested that land be appraised by John Chenery of Moulton (among others). John Chenery was also one of the witnesses to the will.

John Chenery's will was dated 7 Oct. 1624, and proved 8 Nov. 1624 (Archdeaconry of Sudbury, 81 Pearle). In it he called himself John Chenery of Barton, yeoman. He requested burial in Kennett near his late deceased wife Agnes. He named his current wife Elizabeth, and referred to "her former husband's inventory." He mentioned his mourning cloak for the death of Sir John Cotton, knight. He named his sons Richard, John, William ("3rd son") and Charles ("4th son"); his daughters Phillippe Murdon (widow), Katherine Pope, Elizabeth Firmage, Frances Lankester and Margaret Rose; his grandchildren Olyver Murdon (eldest grandchild), Sarah Chenery (daughter of Richard), John Chenery (eldest son of John) and Robert Cramys. He left his son John his signet ring with the letters J and C engraved. Other legatees were kinswoman Joane Ballard of Isleham and servant George Goodchilde. His executor was his son John and his supervisors were his son-in-law Thomas Pope, John Fyrmage and Warren Ingrie.

The will of Elizabeth Chenery, widow of John, was dated 10 Nov. 1627, and proved 19 April 1628 (Archdeaconry of Sudbury, 135 Mason). In it, she was called "of Kennett" and named her late husband's children: Richard Chenery (eldest son), John Chenery (2nd son), Charles Chenery (4th son), Katherine Pope, wife of Thomas Pope, gentleman, Phillip Morden, Elizabeth Firmage, Frances Ingre and Margaret Rose. Frances had been widowed and remarried by this time.

Children (CHENERY) of John and Agnes (Bridgeman):

i PHILLIPPE (female) bp. Exning, Suffolk, 1 May 1571; m., by 1593, OLIVER MURDON of Exning, Suffolk. Her husband's will was written in 1621 and proved in 1624, in which he named his wife Phillipe, his sons Oliver, John, William, George and Martaine, his daughters Anne and Phillipe (both unmarried) and his daughters Bryant and Jhones (presumably their married surnames).

ii ANNE bp. Kennett, Cambridgeshire, 9 March 1572/3; she was living, "2nd daughter" in her grandmother's will in 1587; perhaps the Anne Chenery who married EDWARD POVELL at Exning, 18 Nov. 1600. She was not named in the wills of her father (1624) and stepmother (1627).

iii RICHARD bp. Exning, Suffolk, in April 1575; married with a daughter named Sarah by 1624.

iv KATHERINE prob. b. about 1577/8; m. (1) Exning, Suffolk, 17 Jan. 1596, JOHN CHAPMAN; m. (2) by 1624 to THOMAS POPE, gentleman. Her stepmother, in her 1627 will, refers to her as Katherine, wife of Thomas Pope, gent., but names her son William Chapman as her residual heir.

v ELIZABETH prob. b. about 1580/1; m. by 1624 to (JOHN?) FIRMAGE.

vi FRANCES bp. Exning, Suffolk, 15 Nov. 1584; m. (1) Kennett, Cambridgeshire, 15 Oct. 1606 to THOMAS LANCASTER, gentleman, who was bur. Kennett, 5 Jan. 1621/2; m. (2) at Holy Trinity in Ely, Cambridgeshire, in 1624, WARREN INGREY of Shepreth, Cambridgeshire (Boyd's Marriage Index); she died at Shepreth, a widow, leaving a will dated 1654 and proved in 1662. In it, she named her grandchild Francis (male) Radcote (elsewhere called Redcloake), her son Thomas Lancaster, her daughter-in-law Elizabeth Lancaster, her son Thomas Ingrey, her daughter-in-law Mary Ingrey, her grandchild Thomas Ingrey, her grandchild Thomas Lancaster, her daughter Margarett Banks and her daughter Elizabeth Shipson.

vii MARGARET bp. Exning, Suffolk, 6 Sep. 1586; m. —— ROSE. She was widowed by 1624, the date of her father's will.

viii JOHN bp. Exning, Suffolk, 7 Oct. 1587; married with an eldest son named John by 1624.

ix WILLIAM bp. Exning, Suffolk, 11 Oct. 1588; perhaps died by 1627, when he is not named by Elizabeth Chenery, his stepmother.

x CHARLES bp. Exning, Suffolk, 22 April 1591; he was named in the will of his father in 1624 and of his stepmother Elizabeth in 1627.

xi THOMAS bp. Exning, Suffolk, 4 June 1592; bur. there 20 June 1592.

APPENDIX

JOHN PRATT OF WOOD DITTON

Elizabeth, the eldest daughter of George and Elizabeth (Chenery) Moody, married John Pratt of Wood Ditton, Cambridgeshire. While few people still believe this couple to be John and Elizabeth Pratt of Connecticut, the parish registers of Wood Ditton and probate records of Sudbury make it clear that they could not have been. Their children's baptisms, recorded in Wood Ditton: Mary (1611), Alice (1613), John (1615), Thomas (1618), Elizabeth (1621) and Rebecca (1624). The burial of John Pratt at Wood Ditton was on 12 May 1642. The will of John Pratt of Wood Ditton, yeoman, was dated 11 April 1642 and proved 14 May 1642. In it he named eldest son John (executor), youngest son Thomas, youngest daughter Rebecca and wife Elizabeth. These records also rule out the possibility that the Hartford man could have been John Jr., since John of New England was in Cambridge, Mass., by 1633, and John Jr. of Wood Ditton was his father's executor in 1642. In addition, the will of a John Pratt of Wood Ditton, gentleman, was written 19 Aug. 1661 and proved 9 Oct. 1661, in which he named, among others, his "cousins" Richard Davy and William Fisson. Since Mary Pratt, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Moody) Pratt and sister of John Jr., married William Fisson in 1632, it would seem evident that this was the will of John Pratt Jr.

Sunday Jul 30

Dear Helen,

I'm trying this Sunday to take care of some of my paper work. I went through all the Chapin material you sent me and put the main lines on group sheets. I wasn't able to borrow the Gilbert book from Sutro, so I'll have to wait until I go down there, maybe this week. I did get two Kilbourn books,

A couple of weeks ago I managed to get to the Archives. I spent most of the time working on the Footes, but did look up some Roots, list enclosed. It is interesting that the John Root in Albany Co lived near Canif; a Caniff bought John's land in Chenango. Also, the John Root in 1840 NY census Ontario 130 Gorham has 1M 60-70 1F 50-60 1F 15-20. A couple of Chapins lived nearby, but no other familiar names. I guess it could be our John living there with maybe his sister and a daughter. There is a John L. Root in 1840 OH, Huron Co 440 Norwalk, 110011-101101, but the Marriage Records of Huron Co, DAR vol 82, shows John L. Root m Maria Carpenter 23 Feb 1840. Also, there was a John Root, 78, living with John Root, who a pensioner 1 Jun 1840 in Livingston Co, NY. This may be the John who is usually found in Steuben Co.

I wrote to several more NY counties for probate records on Roots. Tioga and Niagara are like Monroe, they just quote the state law saying that it costs $53 a search. Wyoming said that no Root 1841-1867. Chautauqua said has Amasa P. 1860, Zadock 1860, Loraine 1860, over the years 1811-1860. Zadock sounds like a familiar name. Cataraugaus Co sent several pages of index that only included Samuel V., ? year, Richard D. 1855, Zulimma 1875, Ira 1876, Noah 1877, Sarah 1885, Oliver 1872, Emma I. 1855.

Of the two people listed in the LDS Family Registry Index for Root, one has no information and my letter came back undeliverable from the other. I'm still hoping that the lady in Canisteo, Steuben Co, NY, will look up the various Roots in the state census for me.

Not much going on here except the new house and getting ready for almond harvest. I spent most of last week on the latter and now back to house painting. I may go to Sutro next week, if my kitchen cabinets don't arrive. I'd like to look up Columbia Co material for one thing.

The Chenery material was sent to me from Phil Wolcott. He says that he hasn't been able to find out Robert Ashley's wife's surname.

Aug 2

Before I got around to sending the above letter, another one from you arrived. Thanks for the photos. I'll send one of the slides to Phil Wolcott. I haven't done anything more on Spragues. I want to read some more Sprague family histories in hopes of finding a more likely family. I'm hoping now to get away to the Sutro library next week. It all depends on when I get my cabinets put in.

I subscribe to "The Columbia" now, it has some interesting abstracts, but nothing special so far. I noticed in reading about Columbia Co, that there were lots of Van Deusens living there. Sounded pretty similar to Vandosto, so I looked in the AIS for Van Dosto but none, were some Van Dozen. It still looks like a likely source for his name. Some time back I wrote to a woman named Dowty who had researched Spragues in Chenango; my letter came back. Now I wrote to a Debbie Manning who was listed in the FamHisReg with a Sprague of the vintage of our Sally. She just wrote back saying there was no connection, but she sent five more names of people to write to! And one is a Crippin! I'll write to them soon.

THE SPRAGUE FAMILIES.

Two families by this name early settled in Union.

ELIJAH SPRAGUE came from Lebanon, Crank Parish, now Columbia, and bought of Daniel Loomis, September 10, 1751, the Bush meadow farm and saw-mill.

PERES SPRAGUE, probably a brother of Elijah, came from the same place and bought of Aaron Clark, April 12, 1754, the west part of lot No. 3, called in later times "Sprague Orchard."

The wife of Peres Sprague was Tabitha. He died April 3, 1758. His children, born before he came to Union, were:

Ch. 1. Thomas.
2. Peres.
3. James.
4. Calvin.
5. Tabitha, m. Samuel Hendrick, June 19, 1755.
6. Charity, m. Abner Loomis, July 12, 1754.

THOMAS SPRAGUE, son of Peres, married Hannah Cobb, daughter of John, January 28, 1768. He lived east of the road between David Newell's and Mason Horton's.

Ch. 1. Sally, m. Cyrus Burley.
2. Olive, b. August 9, 1768; m. Giles Badger.
3. Lucy.
4. Tabitha, m. Willard Badger.
5. Peres.

LIEUT JAMES SPRAGUE, son of Peres, was one of the bravest soldiers of the Revolution. It was he of whom Solomon Wales said, "He can recruit more men with his old hat and kilt trousers than I can with my best suit on." He was a favorite of Gen. Putnam, serving with him in the French and Indian War, and in the Revolution. He served 43 months during the Revolution. According to Mr. Hammond he lived on the Rockmeadow road north of the Foster place. But another tradition says he lived north of the Trenck Crawford place. He married Mary Thompson, daughter of David.

Ch. 1. Sally, b. February 11, 1778.
2. Adolphus, b. June 26, 1781.

CALVIN SPRAGUE, son of Peres, lived at the "Sprague Orchard." He married Elizabeth Wright, daughter of Jonathan, September 11, 1766.

Ch. 1. Peres, b. April 13, 1767.
2. Molley, baptized September 17, 1769.

Tradition relates the following story of Peres Sprague, son of Calvin. When he was a boy he was fond of going fishing in Mashapaug. His anxious mother used to go to the top of the hill north of the house, which overlooked the pond and call out to him, "Peres! Peres! are you drownded? If you be drownded, don't tell on't for you'll scare me to death if you do tell!"

DANIEL STEERS came from Rhode Island to Union, about 1828. He married first, Annie Ruby, daughter of Thomas, November 3, 1825; second, Lucinda Ruby, daughter of John, March 26, 1829. She died February 5, 1845, and he married third, Hannah Youmans.

AMOS STICKNEY was one of the earliest settlers of Union. He came from Norwich and settled on the hill to this day known as Stickney Hill. The name of his wife was Hepzibah. They had one child born in Union, Sarah, born November 10, 1735. He probably removed from town after living here a few years. Rev. Mr. Wyman was ordained at his house.

EBENEZER STODDARD, of Woodstock, obtained possession of land in Union, by an execution on David Grover, whereby Oliver Wales, constable, gave him possession of it by "turf and twig," March 29, 1784. He married Alathea. He lived

After teaching school for one term he spent two years and a half as clerk in a retail shoe store. Then he embarked in business as a shoe dealer on his own account, in partnership with Mr. Butts, buying the established business of F. E. Goodjohn. At the end of ten years the firm of Butts & Shattuck was dissolved, and he formed a new partnership with George W. Morton, buying the shoe store of A. E. Nettleton, and conducting the business since then under the firm name of Morton & Shattuck. The business has been extremely prosperous. Mr. Shattuck has been a member of the school board of Oswego Falls, and an alderman of the city of Fulton. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and one of the stewards; a member of Hiram Lodge, No. 144, Free and Accepted Masons; of Lower Oswego Falls Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, and of the Masonic Club. He owns a large farm in addition to his shoe business.

He married, August 1, 1894, Clara E., daughter of Oliver and Sarah Paine, of South Granby, New York. Children: Marion, born December 27, 1895; Mildred, January 8, 1900; Oliver Dan, April 2, 1908; Esther Sarah, August 18, 1909. Mrs. Shattuck is a member of the Eastern Star Order (Masonic). She is descended from "Mayflower" stock.

GILBERT

The family of Gilbert, of Devonshire, England, to which Sir Humphrey Gilbert belonged, is believed to be the same as that of the pioneer in Connecticut mentioned in this account of the family. Jonathan Gilbert, who settled early in Hartford, was born in England, in 1618, married, January 29, 1645-46, Mary, daughter of Elder John White, of Hartford, and she died there about 1650; Jonathan married (second) Mary Wells, daughter of Hugh; Jonathan was a prominent citizen, a townsman in 1658-64-70-74-78; deputy to the general court; collector of customs and marshal of the colony; he died December 10, 1682. Josiah Gilbert, brother of Jonathan, John and probably of William and Obadiah, all pioneers of Connecticut, died October 17, 1682, aged fifty; his first wife was Elizabeth, his second, Mary Ward; Josiah was constable, assessor, surveyor of highways of Wethersfield; children: Benjamin, Josiah, Ebenezer, Moses, Caleb and John. Some writers believed that William was the father of Josiah, John and Jonathan. He lived at Windsor, Connecticut, but little is known of him.

(I) John Gilbert, the immigrant ancestor, brother of Jonathan and Josiah Gilbert, and perhaps son of William, was born in England, and settled early at Windsor, Connecticut, where he was admitted a freeman May 21, 1657. The general court sold to him for £10, March 11, 1662-63, land lying between property of Captain Richard Lord and of John Church, "at ye landing place on the Rivulet both parcels being or lying in ye south meadow at Hartford." The court allowed him £11 in consideration of a horse "that dyed in the country's service," proving that he had a military record. He married, May 8, 1647, Amy, daughter of Thomas and Dorothy (Bulkeley) Lord. Her father was one of the first settlers of Hartford. Children of John Gilbert: John, born January 16, 1647-48, died young; John, February 19, 1652-53; Elizabeth, February 12, 1655-56; Thomas, September 14, 1658, married, September 27, 1681, Deborah Beaumont; Joseph, mentioned below; Amy, August 3, 1663; James; Dorothy, married ——— Palmer.

(II) Joseph, son of John Gilbert, was born at Windsor, Connecticut, April 3, 1666; married (first), May 17, 1692, Mary Grosvenor, who was of a distinguished English ancestry and one of the few having the proven right to bear arms among the colonial families. He married (second), May 8, 1695, Elizabeth Smith, born November, 1672, daughter of Joseph and Lydia (Huitt or Hewett) Smith, of Hartford, granddaughter of Rev. Ephraim Hewett. Among their children were: Benjamin, born May 11, 1704, married, May 14, 1730, Elizabeth Marshfield; Joseph, mentioned below; Mary, died 1712.

(III) Joseph Gilbert, son of Joseph Gilbert, was born about 1675, and died in 1740. Administration was granted to his son Theodore, June 17, 1750. Theodore was appointed guardian of his brother Isaiah, aged seventeen, in 1750; of Elias, aged sixteen, in 1753; of Joseph, aged seventeen, in 1753. The estate was appraised March 13, 1753. Wadsworth's Diary (page 73 as published) tells us that Joseph Jr. died October 6, 1740, and added "sickness prevails among us." The fact that he called him "Jr." in 1740 indicates that his father died after that date. The diary also states that Joseph Jr. was buried October 8,

He was a lawyer of note in his day, admitted to the bar at Hartford in 1727, and within three years was appointed attorney for the crown. His estate was distributed May 25, 1754, to these children: Theodore, mentioned below; Isaiah; Joseph; Elias, and Lydia, who married ——— Hopkins.

(IV) Theodore, son of Joseph Gilbert, was born about 1725. He must have been of age in 1750, when appointed to administer his father's estate, and the probate record calls him the eldest. He married Mary Waters.

(V) Theodore (2), son of Theodore (1) Gilbert, was born in 1751, and died at Whitestown, New York. He was a soldier in the revolution for three years, April 7, 1777, to April 7, 1780, and his name appears among the pensioners, under the act of 1818, as residing in New York; his service being in Connecticut (p. 249, Revolutionary Rolls of Connecticut). He was living at Litchfield, Litchfield county, Connecticut, in 1790, as shown by the first federal census taken in that year, whereby it appears that Theodore had two males over sixteen, one under that age, and five females in his family. According to the "History of Oneida County" he came, in 1790, with his family to Burning Bush Spring, in West Sauquoit, New York (p. 492). He married, in 1790, Hannah Chapin, born 1751, died 1818, daughter of David and Martha (Allen) Chapin (see Chapin). He settled at Whitestown, New York, and followed farming there. In politics he was a Whig; in religion a Presbyterian.

(VI) Titus, son of Theodore (2) Gilbert, was born about 1780, in Litchfield county, Connecticut. He married Elizabeth Andrus. Children: Hiram, mentioned below; Andrus; Grove; William; Titus; Asa Shepherd, who married and had children: Asa, Ira, Frederick and Martha Shepherd.

(VII) Hiram, son of Titus Gilbert, was born at Paris, Oneida county, New York. He was educated in the district schools, and settled when a young man at Gilberts Mills, Oswego county, New York. He was a millwright by trade, and built the first mill in this town. He had a flour mill and a saw mill. Afterward he built numerous mills in the country. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, at Bristol Hill, and one of the deacons. He died aged seventy-eight years. He married Lucy Harrington, of Sauquoit, New York. In early life he was a Whig, and supported abolition before the civil war. In later years he was a Republican. Children: Henry H.; Elizabeth; Lucretia; Catherine R.; Horace N., mentioned below; Frances M.; Newell H.; Martha L.; Myrtis Emogene; Arthur Gillispie.

(VIII) Horace Nathaniel, son of Hiram Gilbert, was born at Gilbertville, now Gilberts Mills, New York, June 30, 1829. He attended the public and select schools of his native town until he was of age, studying for two years of that time in the New York Central College, at McGrawville, Cortland county, New York. He learned the trade of millwright, and during his minority worked with his father. In 1855 he came to Fulton, New York, and in the following year, in partnership with his brother, Henry H. Gilbert, built a custom flouring mill on the Rust Tool mill site, and they afterward built two other mills, owning a controlling interest in each of the three and operating them for several years. He sold his interests to Leonard Van Wagenen and removed to Illinois, where he engaged in business as a millwright and builder. He erected and sold a dozen dwelling houses. A few years later he returned to Fulton, where he built himself a fine residence on Fourth street. He was partner for a time in the firm of Gilbert, Wolcott & Van Burn, and in the firm of Gilbert, Wright & Smith. The mill of the former firm was built in 1862. The latter firm owned the flour mill that spans the hydraulic race. He built a number of houses in Fulton for investment purposes, and at one time had a considerable investment in canal boats. The mill which he, his brother, Henry Newell, and his brother-in-law, Oran Toby, bought on the canal, was formerly known as the Wolcott storehouse, and was operated to manufacture flour by cable power. In politics Mr. Gilbert is a staunch Republican, and throughout his long life has never voted for the ticket of any other than the Republican party. He has been a trustee of the incorporated village of Fulton, and for a number of years was a school trustee. He is a man of many interests in life, a student and observer, and has written much for newspapers. For many years he was a correspondent of the Oswego Daily Times and the Syracuse Standard, and while he was in Europe his letters to these newspapers giving an account of his travels were widely read. He is a member of the Presbyterian church. He belongs to no secret societies.

He married, in 1881, Caroline Gardner, a olent and Protective Order of Elks, and was formerly chaplain of the lodge; member of Neahtawanta Lodge, No. 245, of Odd Fellows, in which he has held in succession all the offices. He has been district deputy grand master of the first district of Oswego county. He is also a member and is now senior warden of Hiram Lodge, No. 144, Free Masons; member of the Citizens Club and Pathfinders Club, an active member of the fire department and a generous patron of baseball and other athletics. He is a member of the New York State Embalmers Association and State Undertakers Association. In politics he is a Republican and for several years represented the town on the Republican county committee and has frequently been elected delegate to nominating conventions of his party. In religion he is a Presbyterian.

He married, December 10, 1874, Cora A. Pollock, born Fulton, New York, daughter of Ira R. and Mary Pollock. Children: 1. Jessie May, married James Lamphere. 2. James, associate of his father in the undertaking business; married Frances Harrington, and has child, Charlotte. 3. Charlotte, married Howard M. Morin, of Fulton, and has child, Edward C.

SEYMOUR

The Seymour family is of great antiquity in England. The seal on the will of Thomas Seymour, eldest son of Richard Seymour, the immigrant ancestor, bears the impress of the wings conjoined in lure, the device of the English Seymours from the time of William de St. Maur, of Penhow. A "Bishop's Bible," printed in 1584, in the possession of a descendant of Richard Seymour, has on one of the fly-leaves a drawing of the arms of the Seymours of Berry Pomeroy: The wings conjoined in lure, quartered with the royal arms, as granted by Henry VIII., and the name written below, "Richard Seymour, Bery Pomeroy, heytor hund in ye com—Devon, his Book, Hartford, in ye Collony of Conn. in New England, 1640." On another there is a memorandum relating to some business transaction, and the name, "John Scimor, Hartford, 1636." A great Bible mentioned in the inventory of the estate of John Seymour, of Hartford, 1713, is undoubtedly the same.

(I) Richard Seymour, the immigrant ancestor, came from Chelmsford, county Essex, England, in 1639, to Hartford, Connecticut, and was one of those settlers who received land "by Courtesie of the town." His home lot was on the east side of the road to the "Cow Pasture" (North Main street), and was bounded on the north by the "Cow Pasture" itself. He was chosen chimney viewer in 1647, was one of the signers of the agreement for the planting of Norwalk, June 19, 1660, and was there soon afterwards with the first planters. He was a townsman in Norwalk in 1655. His will was dated July 29, proved October, 1655. The inventory, dated October 10, 1655, amounted to two hundred twenty-five pounds nine shillings. He mentions his wife Mercy, eldest son Thomas, "three other sons," John, Zachary and Richard, the last three being under age and left to their mother's guardianship. The widow Mercy married, November 25, 1655 (?), John Steele, of Farmington. Children, born in England or Hartford: Thomas; John; Zachary, born 1642; Richard.

(II) John, son of Richard Seymour, was born in Hartford, and doubtless went to Farmington with his mother after her marriage to John Steele, but in 1664 was again in Hartford. He married not long after, Mary, daughter of John and Margaret Watson, of Hartford. He was made a freeman in 1667. He and his wife owned the covenant in the Second or South Church, February 12, 1670, when the church was organized, and were admitted to full communion March 31, 1678. He was leather sealer, 1673; chimney viewer, 1693. He died in 1713; his will was dated December 10, 1712, and proved August 3, 1713. Children: John, mentioned below; Thomas, born March 12, 1669-70; Mary, November, 1670; Zachary, December 22, 1673, died young; Margaret, January 17, 1674; Richard, February 11, 1676-77; Jonathan, January 10, 1678, died young; Nathaniel, November 6, 1680, died young; Zachary, January 10, 1684-85.

(III) John (2), son of John (1) Seymour, was born June 12, 1668, in Hartford, and married, December 19, 1683, Elizabeth, daughter of Hon. Robert and Susanna (Treat) Webster, and granddaughter of Governor John Webster. Her mother, Susannah Treat, was a sister of Governor Robert Treat. John Seymour owned a large estate, and gave to several of his sons farms in New Hartford. He was moderator of the meeting of the first proprietors of that town, held at Hartford, December, olent and Protective Order of Elks, and was formerly chaplain of the lodge; member of Neahtawanta Lodge, No. 245, of Odd Fellows, in which he has held in succession all the offices. He has been district deputy grand master of the first district of Oswego county. John Seymour owned a large estate, and gave to several of his sons farms in New Hartford. He was moderator of the meeting of the first proprietors of that town, held at Hartford, December, in Branford, Connecticut, May 6, 1721, died in Wallingford, Connecticut, October 27, 1781. He marched on the Lexington alarm of April 19, 1775, and served eight days. His commission of lieutenant from the general court placed him in command of all the men in town subject to military duty. He married, January 13, 1741, Mary Sexton. Children: Hannah, Andrew, Joseph, died young; Jonathan, and Joseph (2).

(VIII) Joseph (2), son of Joseph (1) and Mary (Sexton) Bartholomew, was born at Wallingford, Connecticut, 1748, died April, 1821. His farm was on what was called "Whirlwind Hill," now known as East Farms, in Wallingford, a large part being yet owned in the family. He married (first) Martha Morse, who died about 1781; (second) about 1784, Damarius Hall, who died November 6, 1819. (IX) Joseph (3), son of Joseph (2) Bartholomew, was born in Wallingford, Connecticut, settled in New York state, first at Sheridan, where he was an early settler. The tract of land he purchased was virgin wilderness, but he erected a log cabin, cleared a farm, and prospered. He lived and labored there the remainder of his life. (X) Henry, eldest son and seventh child of Joseph (3) and Julia (Howd) Bartholomew, was born in Wallingford, Connecticut, June 7, 1818, died in Dunkirk, New York, November, 1871. He came to Sheridan, New York, with his father, and for several years followed farming. He then removed to Dunkirk, where he was a successful manufacturer of boxes of various kinds. In his later years he retired from business and returned to Sheridan, residing on a farm of about three hundred acres, where his last years were spent, dying in Dunkirk. He married Isabella Paterson, born in Oneida county, New York, July 7, 1819, died 1854; children, a son dying in infancy and three daughters: 1. Julia Ann, married Joseph Nelson (q. v.). 2. Mrs. Julia A. Bartholomew Nelson survives her husband, and resides at Dunkirk, where she is held in the highest esteem.

GILBERT

This branch of the Gilbert family in the United States is of English ancestry. Its English progenitors were of the working class who, as one descendant writes, "lived peaceful, honest lives." Samuel Gilbert was an English working man, who, with wife Susannah, belonged to the Episcopal church. They had children: John, Arthur, Henry and Susan. The family home was in Cornwall. John, born 1811, was the first of the family to come to the United States. He married, in England, 1833, Mary ———, born 1814, and in 1840 he left England for the United States. In 1843 his wife, with four children and her brother-in-law, Henry Gilbert, followed, making the journey from England to Ravenna, Ohio, in thirteen weeks.

(II) Henry, son of Samuel and Susannah Gilbert, was born in Cornwall, England, about 1815. He learned the cabinetmaker's trade, and in 1843 came to the United States with his brother Henry's family. He first settled at Ravenna, Ohio, later in Londonville, Ashland county, Ohio. He was a Baptist in religion, and a Republican, holding the offices of councilman and member of the school board at Londonville. He married, about 1850, Elizabeth Sprague, born in Londonville, Ohio, daughter of William Jasper Sprague, born on a farm near Fly Creek, Chautauqua county, New York. He was a gunsmith, and in early life lived in Dunkirk, New York. He married Rebecca Jones, of Londonville, Ohio. Children: Ann, Margaret, Louisa, James and Elizabeth, who married Henry Gilbert. Their children: Henry Washington, born February 22, 1852; John Franklin, of further mention; William Jasper, born August 26, 1856; Clement Girard, October 8, 1858; Thomas Burton; Lou Harriet; George; Benjamin; Joseph Nelson.

(III) John Franklin, son of Henry and Elizabeth E. (Sprague) Gilbert, was born in Londonville, Ashland county, Ohio, June 30, 1854. He was educated in the public schools. He came to Dunkirk and became employed with Joseph Nelson, where he learned the jewelry business, continued in his employ, and in June, 1898, was made a member of the firm, continuing in partnership with him up to the death of Mr. Nelson, June 28, 1909. Since that time he has continued in business alone. The firm has been very successful, and is well known to the trade. Mr. Gilbert has given close attention to business and ranks high in commercial circles. He is a stockholder in the Citizens' Savings Bank of his native town, Londonville, Ohio, and has other business interests. He has been a member of the Masonic order for many years, and an active worker in his lodge. He was formerly a member of clubs and societies in his city, but for many years has held no club memberships. He married, at Dunkirk, New York, October 15, 1896, Isabelle Bartholomew Nelson, born in Dunkirk, July 3, 1859, daughter of Joseph and Julia Ann (Bartholomew) Nelson, of Dunkirk (see Nelson and Bartholomew). Mrs. Gilbert is a leading member of the Church of Christ, Scientist. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert have no children.

SLATER

This family is of Welsh ancestry, the name originally being Slaughfter, also Slafter and later Slater. The first settlement in America was about 1680, when John Slaughfter settled in Lynn, Massachusetts, removing to Mansfield, Connecticut, as early as 1716, and was an original settler in 1721 of Wellington, Connecticut, where he was the first grand juror for that town. He died there before 1754. He married and had a son Samuel.

(II) Samuel, son of John Slater (as the name is now spelled), of Mansfield and Wellington, Connecticut, was born August, 1696, died at Mansfield, July 31, 1770; married, January 24, 1721-22, Dorothy Fenton, and had a son John.

(III) John (2), son of Samuel and Dorothy (Fenton) Slater, was born at Mansfield, Connecticut, May 26, 1739, died at Norwich, Vermont, October 8, 1819. He, with two companions, made the first settlement at Norwich. He married (first) March 26, 1767, Elizabeth Hovey; (second) October 5, 1815, Priscilla Hovey. Among the children of first marriage was a son Elihu.

(IV) Elihu, believed to be a son of John (2) and Elizabeth (Hovey) Slater, was born at Norwich, Vermont, between 1777 and 1779. He married Sarah Beach, and had children: Orin, Eben, Susan, Mary, Hugh, William, a veteran of the civil war; Aremus (of whom further).

(V) Aremus, son of Elihu and Sarah (Beach) Slater, was born at Cairo, Greene county, New York, July 25, 1820, died March 30, 1873, at Dunkirk, New York. He received a good education, and early in life entered the railroad employ. He finally became a locomotive engineer and for thirty years was in active service, principally with the Erie Railroad Company. He lived at Hornell, New York; Williamsport, Pennsylvania, and Dunkirk, New York, the latter being his home for many years. He was a member and trustee of the Methodist Episcopal church at Dunkirk, and a man of high standing. His manly, upright character made him many friends who sincerely mourned his death. In political life he took little part, but was a supporter of the Republican party always. He was a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in his younger years and quite active in the order. He married, Mary Jane Feroe, born April 29, 1830, at Buffalo, New York; died February 17, 1880, and is buried beside her husband in the cemetery at Fredonia, New York. She grew up in Cairo, New York, where she was educated. Children: 1. Mary Melissa, born February 12, 1847; married (first) Henry Tyler; child, Mary L.; married (second) Melvin G. Hill; residence, Addison, New York. 2. William Lewis (of whom further). 3. Delia Ann, born April 20, 1850, died 1906; married Frank Bliss. 4. Adelbert, born October 10, 1853, died November 19, 1875. 5. Edward Scott, residence, Los Angeles, California; married and had one son, deceased; and two daughters.

GENERATION I.

.THOMAS KILBORNE,

THE common ancestor of all the KILBORNES* on the Western Continent, was born in the parish of Wood Ditton, in the county of Cambridge, England, A. D. 1578, where he was baptized on the 8th of May of that year. The next mention I have found of him, is contained in the will of Agatha Borrowdale, (already referred to,) who, in 1613, bequeathed to him and others, certain property in trust for benevolent purposes; for the care of which he was to receive, at the end of every seven years, "a ring of gold of the price of 30*s*." &c. Unlike most of the pioneers of New England, he was a member of the Church of England, as appears from the fact that he was a "Church Warden" of his native parish in 1632. He married Frances Meedy, and had eight children, viz., Margaret, Thomas, Elizabeth, George, Mary, Lydia, Frances and John. On the 15th of April, 1635, Thomas Kilborne, with a portion of his family, embarked from London for New England, in the ship "Increase," Robert Lea, master, as appears by the following paragraphs from the Hon. James Savage's "Gleanings for New England History," in the Collections of the Massachusetts Historical Society, 3d series, Vol. VIII, p. 243, viz.:

"Extract from a MS. volume in folio at the Augmentation Office (so called,) where Rev. Joseph Hunter, one of the Record Commissioners, presides in Rolls Court, Westminster Hall. It contains the names of all persons permitted to embark at the port of London, after Christmas, 1634, to the same period in the following year, kept generally in regular succession. This was found only a few months since, and may not have been seen by more than two or three persons for two hundred years."

*Now spelt variously—Kilbourn, Kilburn, Kilborn, Kilbourne, &c.

"15th Apr. 1635. These parties hereafter expressed are to be transported to New England, embarqued in the Increase, Robert Lea, master, having taken the oath of allegiance and supremacy, as also being conformable to the orders and discipline of the church, whereof they brought testimony per certificates from the Justices and Ministers where their abodes have lately been.

The subjoined letter from Judge Goodwin is here inserted in the text as a fitting introduction to the valuable documents which follow it:

"Hartford, Conn., January 13, 1853.

Dear Sir.—I am truly obliged to you for your favor of the 29th ult., giving me the particulars which I solicited you to obtain for me, and have the pleasure to make you, at this time, a very considerable payment towards the large amount in which I am indebted to you.

In looking over some old Probate papers, there came to the light, the last Will and Testament and the Inventory of your first American ancestress, Frances Kilborne. I have made copies of both Instruments today, which I shall herein enclose.

The will, as you will notice, is nuncupative. It was made on the 13th of November, 1650, and the Inventory was taken on the 3d of December next following. Between these two dates she must have died. The will was probably made on her death-bed. By the date of her death, and the data given by Judge Savage, in his "Gleanings," she was 65 years of age at the time of her decease.

In the will, you will find one devizee more than those before ascertained by you,—"My grand-child, Elizabeth Spencer." Who this William Roscoe settled in Hartford and had charge of the prisoners and House of Correction, 1647–1650. John Rogers settled in New London, and was often a Deputy.

* Nathaniel Goodwin, Esq., of Hartford, (under date of May 22, 1848, writes:—"Frances Kilbourn, your ancestress, (her husband having deceased before the distribution of the town was recorded in 1639,) had a home lot of three acres, on the west side of Broad Street—being the same lot, together with another home lot next adjoining on the south, originally Samuel Smith's—now known by the name of the "Chester Place"—a beautiful situation. The Kilbourn lot, either in whole or in part, remained in the hands of the Kilbourn family to and including the fourth generation."

As stated by Judge Goodwin in the foregoing extract, the home lot of Samuel Smith joined the Kilborne homestead on the south. The next home lot still farther south was owned and occupied by his son, Lieutenant Philip Smith, who subsequently removed to Hadley, Mass., in 1659, where, according to the famous Cotton Mather, he "was murdered by an hideous witchcraft," in January, 1684. The particulars of his death, as given by Mather (Magnalia, book vi, chap. vii.) are so characteristic of the writer and of the age in which he lived, that I will here give them in full as a quaint curi-that Room and over the whole House, a strong Smell of something like Musk, which once particularly so scented an Apple roasting at the Fire, that it forc'd them to throw it away. Some of the young Men in the Town being out of their Wits at the strange Calamities thus upon one of their most belov'd Neighbors went three or four times to give disturbance unto the Woman thus complain'd of: And all the while they were disturbing of her, he was at ease, and slept as a weary Man: Yea, these were the only times that they perceiv'd him to take any Sleep in all his Illness. Gally pots of Medicines provided for the sick Man were unaccountably empty'd: audible Scratchings were made about the Bed, when his Hands and Feet lay wholly still, and were held by others. They beheld Fire sometimes on the Bed; and when the Beholders began to discourse of it, it vanish'd away. Divers People actually felt something often stir in the Bed, at a considerable distance from the Man: It seem'd as big as a Cat, but they could never grasp it. Several trying to lean on the Bed's head, tho' the sick Man lay wholly still, the Bed would shake so, as to knock their heads uncomfortably. A very strong Man could not lift the sick Man to make him lie more easily, tho' he applied his utmost Strength unto it; and yet he could go presently and lift a Bed-sted and a Bed, and a Man lying on it, without any strain to himself at all. Mr. Smith dies: The Jury that view'd his Corpse, found a Swelling on one Breast, his Privities wounded or burn'd, his Beak full of Bruises, and several Holes that seem'd made with Awls. After the Opinion of all had pronounc'd him dead, his Countenance continued as Lively as if he had been Alive; his Eyes closed as in a Slumber, and his Nether Jaw not falling down.

"Thus he remain'd from Saturday Morning about Sun rise, till Sabbath-day in the Afternoon; when those who took him out of the Bed, found him still warm, tho' the Season was as cold as had almost been known in any Age: And a New-English Winter does not want for Cold. On the Night following, his Countenance was yet fresh as befor; but on Monday morning, they found the Face extremely tumify'd and discolor'd. It was black and blue, and fresh Blood seem'd running down his Cheek upon the Hairs. Divers Noises were also heard in the Room where the Corpse lay; as the Clattering of Chairs and Stools, whereof no account could be given.

"This was the End of so good a Man.

"And I could with unquestionable Evidence relate the Tragical Deaths of several Good Men in this Land, attended with such preternatural Circumstances, which have loudly call'd upon us all to work out our own Salvation with Fear and Trembling."

Dear Helen,

I'm still entering the new records that you found on your trip. It is too bad that so many traces of the families are gone, the old homes, the gravestones. I suppose that some of the cousins still living around there might know where things were too. That's quite a story you got regarding our rowdy uncles!

Yes, William was Martha's brother. I think that Olive Wyant was his second wife, but right now I can't find where that's said. Honestly, I'm not that curious about this whole bunch. There are so many Root families in Michigan that I'm not going to wear myself out keeping track of all of them. Especially considering that none of them seem much interested in their own history. I expect that William passed on to Bertha Claucherty everything that he had on the family. He mentions in one letter that his children had no interest in the stuff.

I'd guess that Charlotte (Foote) Clapp was the sister who burned the papers after Lovica died. She lived in Sandusky Co. V.S., being a wheeler dealer, probably read in the newspaper about the fabulous Mosher fortune story and possibly became part of the group that was trying to collect. It would be interesting sometime to try and track down the records of that project. The few descendants I've found of Lovica's siblings haven't heard of this Mosher business. It seems strange that Lovica should have had any family records, because her mother was still alive and living in Lenawee Co, MI. But, Lovica was the eldest daughter and may have been more interested in her father's family. The whole thing is pretty strange.

I've sent for Simon B. Root's Civil War record, if any. Perhaps you beat me to it. About the photos, I think that lots of what we have are copies of copies, so how they look now doesn't tell much about whether the originals were tin types. My nephew, who has done photo dating for the Smithsonian, has seen them all and can't say much about dates. All of the old VS pictures are owned by cousins in Michigan, it seems, so the best way to decide who is who, is to go look at those other pictures. To me, the bent leg man and the one you have, sitting holding glasses, are the same fellow. I've only seen two pictures reported to be of V.S., and one of John that my grandmother had. When my grandmother died, my mother divided the photos between her siblings and, of course, many of them have since disappeared. I contacted all of my cousins about family photos years ago

Maybe the Sacket's Harbor story is confused with John being in the War of 1812 and possibly serving there. The John Root in Jefferson Co in 1820 is listed as having two foreign born, so that fits for them to be recently from England, as in the local history book. I used to think that this was John 802, son of Eliakim and Eunice (Chapman) Root, because some of the other children were early settlers there. But the census listing shows differently. I wasted a lot of time trying to locate a service record for John in the War of 1812, but there are too many John Roots and no way to tell them apart, as far as I know.! I checked at the NY State Archives too, and that was no help, although those guys can be unhelpful if they feel like it.

I'm still trying to sort out the Jones, Parkers and Spragues. Based on the Coventry CT vrs, I put the early Jones in groups, but I'd like to find a family history to confirm this. I'd expect that our Sally was related to the Dyre Sprague who lived between Simon and Benjamin Jones in Coventry NY in 1810, but I don't know how. It is a can of worms with all the marriages in Coventry CT, Lebanon CT, Sharon CT and Coventry NY between Root, Sprague, Foote, Jones, Lewis, Parker, Walker, Tubbs, Swetland and so on and on.

Dear Helen,

Here are copies of some of Howard's photos. The rest are of Quiggs and I didn't think that you'd be interested in them. I have to assume that the man and woman in the cracked photos are Simon B.& Elizabeth, that Elizabeth & a child (Martha?) are in the dim photo, but I don't understand the Civil War business. I assume that the "napsack" was carried by young fellow in the uniform (he looks very familiar, but can't find another photo of him). Simon and Elizabeth look somewhat like their later pictures. You're good at speculating about photos, so I'm wondering what you think.

Howard mentioned his cousin Ruth Weaver, who lives a few blocks from him. They both said that she is sharp and the cousin most likely to be interested in genealogy. I called her that evening and then sent her some stuff. But her reply is not encouraging, she knows little. Howard's home was bady damaged by lightening while he was gone, so maybe it was unlucky that he moved the box <g>.

More hot weather. I went to the FHC yesterday and read a film of the genealogy files held by the Dutchess Co, NY, gen soc, including one Crippen family, and by the time I got home about 4PM it was 110. It is 1PM now and 98, which is strange as it had been up to 100 not long ago. Maybe a cooling breeze has picked up. On days like this, I try to start doing my outside chores by 7AM and quit by 10 or so.

Roberta Bostwick is still finding new material. She has so many, many cousins in Tioga Co, that there are lots of sources to tap. I'm enclosing a group sheet for a new family there that is unfolding. It is new to find relatives in Cattaraugus Co, NY. Some people named Root still live in that area, but I haven't called any of them yet.

Charlie

Dear Helen,

It looks like WINTER has arrived in your area. We're having rain here at last, the first real stuff since last May. Not much new to report. I tried out AOL for a free month, but quit. Then tried out Prodigy (quit that too now). That was much better and I ended up with about 30 messages under a Root category, although practically no response for Foote, which was unexpected. The guy who has the big Sprague database hasn't reported any findings so far, but he says that he's working on it. The most interesting response on Prodigy was from Claudette Filiputti, great granddau of Edith Jacobs, whose first, illegitimate son, Matthew, married Nina Root, dau of George & Lydia (Fewless). She says that Matthew was raised by Edith's parents Christopher & Emma Jane (Miller) Jacobs, as their son. She lives in Delton, not far from Plainwell, so I sent her Linda's address. I haven't heard how that turned out. I wonder whether that Miller is connected to the other Millers in the family.

Too bad that the Leamington newspaper article is not to be found. ~~Harold~~ Howard's box contained several mysteries, clues to Root adventures that we haven't discovered yet. The state of Michigan put out a massive compilation of their Civil War veterans. Have you ever checked that for the Roots? I haven't seen it in any of our libraries, but I would think that your library would have it. I think that an index was published much later. I'm still wondering about uncle Simon. I didn't ask the Natn'l Archives for his pension record, but his service record, which should be there if he served at all.

I don't think that I've given you the latest on our English ancestors. Several years ago I tried to get the parish records on microfilm, but found that Northampton was the only county not to allow the Mormons to copy their records. But abstracts of the records are available, taken about 80 years ago. Those I read but they turned out to be incomplete. Last spring a fellow over there checked the parish records and found the missing ones. I started to read the probate records, but here again only a small portion of the Northampton stuff is on film. Then this summer, a fellow appeared on Compuserve, named Simon Rushall, who is researching the Rushall name! So I contacted him at once. He does have wills that really show the connection between a particular Rushall line and the one that married John Roote and came to New England. But then, before I could get his address and any further details, like whether he would send me copies of these documents, Simon quit CIS. I've been trying to locate him ever since. Over there they have no cheap CD-ROM with all the phone numbers. There is one, but it is way too expensive for most people to own. Meanwhile, I've been getting information from a woman there who does genealogy in the area of Yorkshire where my Rudiforth family came from; my ggfa James Saddoris married Mary Rudiforth, born over there. I told this source about disappearing Simon and she called the phone company and badgered them into looking up his number for her, something not usual there for some strange reason. I called last week and found that it was Simon's father. He couldn't find Simon's address at that moment, but he took my address and assured me that Simon will write.

Your new printer puts out unbeatable clean print. These computer devices keep getting better, and cheaper too, thank goodness. It still can be a pain to get them to work right though. I got a card from the Gydes saying that Beryl has been ill, getting chemotherapy, so that doesn't sound good. I'll be with my sister, as usual, for Christmas. She just got a new PowerMac so we'll have plenty to do. She and her husb.have four computers in current operation, Amiga, Mac and two PCs!

Dear Charles,

I certainly appreciate your interest in the Cuykendall family, and your perserverence in contacting me. I don't have much to add to the information you have sent me, but what I think you might be interested in follows. Robert I. was my husband's father, and I believe the rest is pretty self explanatory. Robert I. had four boys, Robert C., Douglas L., Philip S., and James T. Cuykendall. The following information was written years ago by my sister-in-law Vivian Cuykendall, wife of Robert Charles Cuykendall. They both still live in Olympia, Washington. Douglas Loren Cuykendall lives in Port Ludlow, Washington with his wife Virginia, and the youngest, James Theodore Cuykendall passed away, but his widow still resides in Albany, Oregon. The decendency chart shows the whole family as far back as I have it in a line. I skip a few generations and pick up the Cuykendalls again, back to Holland. I might add that Robert I. Cuykendall's full name was as it appears below. I might note that on your Family Group Sheet Winifred not married but died in 1954. Do hope the following is of help to you, and if I can provide any other information, please don't hesitate to contact me. (The bottom line is that Simon B. Root would have been a step-grandfather to my husband, wouldn't you say?)

Robert Ingersoll Taylor Bowlsby Cuykendall

He was born to Vernon Taylor Cuykendall and Helen Bowlsby in Jackson, Michigan, one of seven children, of whom only three survived infancy. His little sister died at age seven and is buried in Jackson. he and his sister Winifred were raised in Albion, Michigan, his mother's home. Albion lies along the Kalamazoo River and was settled by the American Dutch people after they finished working on the Erie Canal in New York. Both his father and mother were of Dutch heritage. Her father and grandfather Bowlsby lie buried in Riverside Cemetery. They had become prosperious people there and Robert was raised in a big lovely home now used for the Methodist College in Albion.

Robert said he had a hazy memory of being taken to Chicago by his father to hear Robert Ingersoll (the free thinker and atheist) speak. He was named for him, amazing when you think that Albion has the oldest Methodist college in the country. He and his father were also Democrats when Jackson is the home of Republicanism. His father was crippled and died young (age 55) of a stroke while out walking on the streets of Albion. He had been married 22 years and Robert was left fatherless at age 17. His uncle Abrham Bowlsby seems to have been a fried and mentor to him.

Also, the neighbor was a U.S. Senator and urged the boy to go to the University of Michigan, as Robert wanted to be a doctor. However, he dropped out; he said he found Latin difficult. He was a very good football player and was remembered as such by Albion as late as the 1970's. Uncle Abe, a very good American Dutch craftsman, taught him his trade of pipe fitter. This is how at age 30 he found himself in Sioux City, Iowa, where he met Elizabeth McGlashan, teacher. They were married in 1912, in Denver. His first child (a girl) died in infancy, the second was Robert Charles (b 1918 in Homer, Nebraska), Douglas Loren (b 1920 in Sioux Falls, South Dakota), Philip Stanley (b 1922 in Montana) and James Theodore (b 1925 in Hobson, Montana). Robert married Clydia Vivian Hall, Douglas married Virginia Ann Nelson, Philip married Betty Louise Smith, and James married Joyce Evelyn LaFayette.

Robert I. was a reddish blond, grey-eyed husky man, very strong and Dutch in appearance. his son Philip most clearly resembled him. His interest in his family was strong. He was representative of both rural and blue collar America. He tended to leave most transactions of any nature to his wife Elizabeth.

He worked up to age 70 and even after that built a duplex to augment the family income. With vigorous health, he enjoyed a contented old age surrounded by his four sons and 15 grand-children, amid many a Sunday big family dinenr.

He suffered from failing memory the latter few years and died at age 86 following a brief hospitalization. Elizabeth was to Ivie two years following his death and also died at age 86. Both are buried on a hilltop above Kent, Washington.

Elizabeth Ethel McGlashan (1884 - 1971)

Elizabeth was born in Oto, Iowa (a small place east of Sioux City, Iowa) where her father ran a sawmill. She was the third child of six, born to James Theodore McGlashan and Evaline Grafford. Her father was just short of his 47th birthday when he married 22 year old blind Evaline.

By Elizabeth's twelfth birthday, her parents had moved to a farm at Homer, Nebraska, just across the Missouri River from Sioux City, Iowa.

She had chestnut hair and grey eyes and was of stately build, 5'9" tall. She always referred to her sister Caddie as the "pretty one" and herself as "the smart one". She told a story of being taken from the 7th form and put in Caddie's 8th form. Poor Caddie was so upset she fled for home. Her new husband Robert I. described her "as a pip, a real beauty".

(I have more information on Elizabeth, but don't believe you'd be interested -- if you are, just ask, I'll be happy to type it.)

Helen Augusta Bowlsby (1850 - 1916)

She was born 1850 in Albion, the daughter of Abrham Bowlsby and Anne M. Benedict. Her elder sisters Alvira (died at birth) and Lavina (died at age 2) and brother Andrew (died at age 2) left her the eldest. Gussie had sister Theresa and brothers Abram and George as playmates. George lived until 1928 to the ripe old age of 87.

Gussie's parents were prosperous and she lived in a big house. The American Dutch after working on the Erie Canal came to Albion. This little town of S. Michigan had rich soil. They kept a common for the livestock (big homes are there now) and built good Dutch stone (split stone) homes.

After Taylor died, Helen married again, a man named Simon Root. Her children, Robert I. and Winifred were upset by this. She lies buried with the name Cuykendall on her stone alongside Taylor in the beautiful Riverside Cemetery by the Kalamazoo River. Her parents also lie there as does sister Theresa and brothers Abram and George. Daughter Winifred lies in Homer, Michigan. She was grandmother to Robert, Douglas, Philip and James Cuykendall (Robert Taylor Ingersol Bowlsby Cuykendall's children) and Ruth (Wildt), Ester (Cochin), Jane (Miller), and Bill Barnes (Ella Winifred Cuykendall's children).

Vernon Taylor Cuykendall (1845 - 1900)

Taylor was born in 1845 in Comstock, Kalamazoo, Michigan. He was the sixth child of Solomon Cuykendall and Margaret Powleson. His childhood was spent on a farm. He was crippled and heavy in the arms and shoulders. How this happened we do not know. Also we know not how he met Helen Bowlsby of Albion. On their marriage certificate she is listed as 28 and he as 33 years of age. He lists his occupation then as merchant and his residence as Lowell, Michigan. The date is November 28, 1878. After marriage, they lived in Jackson, Michigan. Of seven children, only Mabel lived until age seven (she is buried in Jackson) and Robert I. and Winifred lived to maturity. Winifred married a Ira Barnes (she was born in 1889 and died in Homer, Michigan in 1954). She came out west and last visited her brother Robert in 1953 and also visisted her newphew Robert Cuykendall in Olympia, Washington. Various censuses show Taylor as a merchant of stone polish, a sawyer, having a milk route, and being a prison guard. He collapsed on the street in Albion and died several hours later, just two months short of age 55. The death certificate (1900) lists apoplexy and says acute melancholia was a contributing cause.

Solomon Cuykendall (1806 - 1876)

Solomon was born in Owasco, Cayuga County, New York. Owasco was the untamed West in 1802 when Dutch settlers from Minisink (Pt. Jervis, New York) arrived. The ones who changed the spelling of their name from Kuykendall to the English Cuykendall were two brothers, Hendricus (Henry) and Martinus (Martin) and another Henry. The 1810 census has 5 families (Cuykendall). We believe Solomon to be the child of Henry Cuykendall and Phoebe Crossman. We can not as yet find a list of their children to prove it. If this is true, Henry is the son of a woman who was rescued by a Van Vliet (she was pregnant) and taken through the Dismal Swamp following the horrible battle of Wyoming (Forty-Fort) 1778 located where Wilkes Barre, Pennsylvania is now.

We do know Solomon was married the 29th of December 1831 in Lockport, Niagara, New York, to Margret Powlison. They did own a farm there. I'm assuming Solomon may have worked on the Erie Canal (started by Gov. DeWitt Clinton in 1817 and finished in 1825). Many cobblestone houses still exist around Niagara as evidence of the Dutch American who worked on this project.

Their first child Stephen was born in New York. Also son Newell. There is a son Jasper and Joseph and daughter Phoebe Jane and son Vernon Taylor and son Frank and a daughter Catherine. By the 1840 census they are in Comstock, Michigan; by the 1870 census Bowne, Kent County, Michigan. Both are buried in Bowne Cemetery, Kent County, Michigan.

Solomon lists his profession as carpenter and farmer. It appears he had trouble keeping his farm and this probably led to his lying about his age by 10 years (he was 54, but he said he was 44).

In September 1861 he joined the Company G - 1st Michigan Regiment, Mechanical Engineers and Mechanics. His Civil War medical record lists him as 5'8-1/4", blue eyes, brown hair, dark complexion. He was hospitalized in Louisville, Kentucky for severe diarrhea. He was discharged in 1862 and continued to have this problem. There is a record of his application for Civil War pension and his widow's application for pension. He died at age 70 in 1876.

Margret Powlison (1812 - ?)

She is the daughter of John Powlison and Catherine. She was born in New Jersey. We do not know her death date, but she married Solomon in 1831 and survived him to apply for her widow's pension. She had 8 children that we know of and son Jasper also served in the Civil War. James Cuykendall (son of Robert Ingersol Cuykendall) has a tintype of her paid for in pence, probably to an itinerant photographer from Canada.
NOTE; James Cuykendall is deceased, resided in Alblany, Oregon. (Betty)

Sincerely

Betty Cuykendall

ARISTOCRAT LINE

A Little Step Away

To close the eye, to fall asleep,
To draw a labored breath,
To find release from daily cares
In what we know as death...

Is this the crowning of a life,
The aim or end thereof?
The totaled sum of consciousness,
The ripened fruit of love?

It cannot be, for works of God
Are wrought for nobler ends,
And those away continue on
In the hearts of kin and friends.

It cannot be, for they live on
A little step away.
The soul, the everlasting life,
Has found a better day.....

Dear Francis,

Hope this finds you feeling well. We sure have had a mild fall & winter so far. I sure hate to see winter weather set in. I'll have to do some crocheting and sewing. I made a Coral color shawl and sent it to Helen in Calif. She should get use from it out there.

Is Aunt Susie Dilley, or I should say, who did she marry, to become a Dilley? A sister of Grandpa (Cornelius) Dilley lived up across the Straits & married and her granddaughter was a registered nurse here in Garden City. I called her when I found out who she was, but I've forgot her name. She lived on Rush street. She was my doctors nurse but I didn't know who she was then. Would you know who she is? She was about my age or so. It seems you told Mother of her at one time a long time ago. (over)

Dear Aunt Frances

Good to hear from you, sorry we haven't written sooner, it is not because you were forgotten as we asked Bruce (our son) who lives in Wyndotte which to stop and see you or call you, as he does not go to far from Erie St on his way to and from Springfield. He is 31 years old. Yes I knew your name is Frances, as Dad had told me, but since every one else called you Linda I supposed you wished it that way.

Arthur, Marvin & I are left, Foster having passed away in Oct 1968 in Lima O. hospital very unexpectable as he had never mentioned it, (Dad) to any of us. He had always been thin but seemed strong, but I guess you can't always go on looks alone. Of course you knew of Eddies death. Arthur will be 70 in July and Marvin will be 67 in December. I will be 61 in July. Art lives in a trailer court in Huron Ohio right on the lake he says. Marvin is in Columbus Ohio.

We had a letter from Art last week and he wants the familys to get together some time around Memorial Day. It would be nice if you could be there too.
Evangeline had a kidney removed last October and she is feeling fair, she has went thru a lot the last few years was in intensive care for 40 days, due to ruptured gall bladder, and peritonitis set in, 1966, just barely pulled thru, this of course is the cause of kidney failure last year. She is working every day, shouldn't be, but I think she feels better, than not working, or keeping busy, at least.
We have a new granddaughter Lisa Lynn, Dec 27, 1969, Judy has gone back to work at City Hospital, in Medical Records, its their first child. Eleanor (36) (oldest girl) oldest Penny girl 17, is a nurses aid at Mercy Medical Center here, works on week ends, intends to take Nurses training next year. Bob (35) (oldest son) is in Salem Ores has a 5 year old son (marc Allen) for me. (Allen) we have not seen him yet. Bob was here in 1966, when Evangeline was real bad

We talk to him quite often on phone.
How do you get around to do your shopping is there a shopping center near your home,
Of course Springfield is much smaller, we live about a mile from large center Sunday eve. just tried to call Bruce but he did not answer. We just returned from laundromat had a months laundry to do, did not know we had that many clothes.
We have summer one day, winter next cold here today Friday, colder tonite they say Are you figuring on returning to Florida this winter yet, how do you travel
Well I've been at this long enough better get it in the mail. Let us know when you go, we will try to get up there, we will let you know in time.

Love

Roger & Evangeline

From the Walter children's baptisms, we know Johann was from Melldorf, Baden. This town was later renamed Walldorf. Research to the present does not indicate either Margaretha or Johann immigrated. They likely had other children but only one has been identified so far.

This branch has not been researched for biographical information but I expect to do so eventually.

John Michael immigrated about 1852 and lived in Sandusky near relatives. He was a "house" carpenter which I take to mean he built houses or finished interiors of homes.

On March 2, 1860 Michael bought Lot #50 on Railroad Street in Sandusky,[5] from his cousins George and Caroline Walter. He paid $300 for the property.

During the Civil War he served as a Sergeant in the Jäeger-companie which went to Camp Taylor near Cleveland on April 25, 1861. He enlisted as a 100-day soldier. John also participated to some degree in Sandusky politics. He was elected or appointed as the fourth ward assessor in 1882 but may only have served one year.

John's very short will:
